Troops Issue Senate Action Expected Today

Expect Compromise Approving Sending Of Four Divisions

By WILLIAM THEIS
(L. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, April 4.—The delayed-action fuse on the Senate's troops-to-Europe decision is expected to blast loose today a compromise approving shipment of at least four divisions to Gen. Eisenhower's forces.

The troops issue was scheduled to be settled Monday, and then Tuesday, but in each case action was postponed.

Both sides of the debate found some satisfaction in the compromise up for discussion, and probably passage, today.

Administration leaders called the troops resolution "a poor export product" but thought it was acceptable "domestically."

Constitutional Authority
Senate GOP leader Taft (R) Ohio, termed it a "strong declaration by Congress of its constitutional authority." He said the Senate had asserted its right to limit the number of troops sent abroad.

For the second time in two days, the Senate postponed final action after nine hours of continuous debate by voting on its two troops resolutions. But Majority Leader McFarland (D) Ariz., said he expects to dispose of both today.

Overwhelming adoption of the pending Senate resolution was assured when the Senate voted 56 to 31 not to send it back to committee for conversion into a bill, which would have the force of law.

No More Than Four
Unchanged from the form hammered out on Monday, the Senate resolution authorizes troop contributions to General Eisenhower's defense force but asserts that no more than four divisions should go without congressional approval. It was the latter provision which Taft and other advocates of congressional authority applauded. Chairman Connally (D) Tex., who headed the joint committee which reported the resolutions, announced he would oppose going Hitchhiking is increasing notably about the district as warmer weather approaches the local area. Many of the hikers are older men migrating to other cities where perhaps they will find defense work and other occupations. Motorists are being quite cautious, with few offering to pick up the ride seekers.

With gardening season just around the corner, local residents are hoping that their neighbors will be thoughtful enough to tie up their wandering dogs, who play havoc on the garden spots once they are loose. Many of the canines now on the loose have no license tag and should be impounded.

Workmen were in the process of dismantling the sun porches on the north end of the Jameson Memorial hospital, Tuesday as preparations went forth for the erection of the addition to the hospital. Much progress is noted on the site as excavation work continues.

Local outdoor enthusiasts have but 12 days to wait before they can get out their rod and reel and head for district streams. The trout season opens a week from next Sunday. Local streams have been well stocked, it is reported.

Work of repairing many of the traffic route signs about the county is in progress now by the highways department. The work enables motorists to read the signs more clearly and improves the sights along the various routes of the county.

Just a memory now, but it may be a reality again, is the "A" gaso-

PRESIDENT LAYS CHURCH CORNERSTONE

—Acme Telephoto

WASHINGTON—Speaking at a cornerstone ceremonies for the New York avenue Presbyterian church where Abraham Lincoln once worshipped, President Truman said that a "burning faith" in religion is needed to see the nation through its struggle with the Godless creed of Communism. Here President Truman (right) lays down cement for the cornerstone as Dr. George M. Doherty, minister (left) looks on. Assisting President Truman is David J. Morton, master mason (left of stone).

Slashing Blow Is Dealt To Voice Of America Fund

WASHINGTON, April 4.—(INS)—A House appropriations subcommittee dealt the Voice of America a slashing blow today by slashing almost 88 million dollars from a Voice expansion program of 97 million 500 thousand dollars.

President Truman submitted the 97 million 500 thousand request March 2, saying he wished to strengthen the Voice's part in the anti-Communist cold war by building more radio stations to carry the U. S. message to Iron Curtain countries.

Not Unanimous
Subcommittee members disclosed that the action taken was not unanimous and is subject to approval by the full 50-member committee, which will probably meet Friday. The full committee normally approves subcommittee recommendations.

The six-member subcommittee rejected the entire $87,966,061 requested by Mr. Truman to permit immediate construction of four double high-powered shortwave stations in this country and nine medium-wave relay stations overseas.

Instead, it merely approved $9,533,939 to defray increased construction costs for projects authorized by Congress over the past two years.

In explaining their reason for rejecting the president's request, members said privately they were not satisfied with State Department plans for operating the new stations. They would have provided the final links in a worldwide link of radio transmitters.

Symington May Overhaul RFC

WASHINGTON, April 4.—(INS)—Senate probes today spotlighted influence in the Reconstruction Finance Corporation heard rumors today that Stuart Symington might be named to overhaul the agency.

At the same time the investigators, members of the Fulbright subcommittee, are to decide what Senate group will take over their investigations of public and political in government agencies.

White House sources and Symington declined comment on the Symington rumors, but it was believed that the head of the National Security Resources Board and former Air Force secretary was under consideration for the RFC. Job if Congress approves reorganization of the agency under one-man control.

The reorganization has been submitted to Congress by President Truman, and has the blessing of Chairman Fulbright (R) Ark., of the investigating subcommittee.

Woman Editor Of Washington Paper Suddenly Resigns

WASHINGTON, April 4.—(INS)—Col. Robert R. McCormick arrives in Washington late today to take personal control of the Times-Herald newspaper from which his niece unexpectedly resigned as editor.

Mrs. Ruth McCormick Miller, who also bowed out as the paper's vice president, stunned newspaper circles with her sudden announcement last night.

In a brief memo to "all staff members," Mrs. Miller stated simply that she had "tried to buy the paper but was unsuccessful" and resigned.

Meanwhile, McCormick, publisher of the Chicago Tribune, said he would arrive in Washington today and "take charge of the paper" Thursday.

Wilson Says Inflation Can Be Controlled

It Will Take Many 'Hard Decisions' And All Will Hurt Some One

(By International News Service)

WASHINGTON, April 4.—Defense Mobilizer Wilson told Congress today that "inflation can be controlled" but it will take many "hard decisions" and each will "hurt some one."

Wilson was the first witness as the Senate-House watch dog committee on price-wage controls opened an investigation of how the stabilization program is working and what the administration plans to do to halt rising prices.

Not So Severe as World War II
On the optimistic side, Wilson told the committee that the impact of the mobilization program would "not be nearly so severe" as that of World War II and commented, "I would hope that we would not have to have rationing."

He predicted that by 1953, "the civilian economy will be better than it was before Korea." He said the forecast applied to manufacturing, farming and "all segments of the economy."

The defense mobilizer declared that the problem of checking inflation "is more difficult in many ways than attaining high production."

Wilson said:
Can Sap Strength
"Inflation can sap the strength of the economy and threaten the success of the whole defense effort."

"We take the view that inflation can be controlled. In order to do this, however, we must have the national will and the national unity to take the necessary steps. The decisions that must be made to check inflation are hard decisions. Each appears to hurt some one."

"We will do our best to make

Admits Slaying Four Persons

Tragedy Revealed On Missouri Farm

CONWAY, Mo., April 4.—(INS)—Missouri highway patrolmen and deputy sheriffs said today that a 23-year-old farmer has admitted slaying a Conway, Mo., family of four last night.

The victims were Mr. and Mrs. William Shockley, their daughter, Helen; and Shockley's 73-year-old mother, Mrs. Gus Shockley.

All were shot with a .22-caliber rifle.

Police said the Shockleys' six other children were asleep upstairs when the slayer fired through the window of their farmhouse.

One of the children, Mary Ellen, 10, ran downstairs and called a neighbor, Luke O'Connor, who drove to the farm with his wife.

They were met by gunfire and O'Connor was shot in the arm. He turned around and sped to nearby Conway for help.

Two of Shockley's brothers who attempted to approach the house were fired on, too.

The young farmer in the killings later was identified as Kenneth Essery who lives near Conway, Mo.

Political Aim May Be Behind Troops Massing

TOKYO, April 4.—(INS)—Diplomatic observers in Tokyo today speculated on the possibility that Communist China is about to launch a political rather than a military offensive by arraying an estimated 63 divisions against the United Nations forces in Korea.

Experts, familiar with Peiping's pattern of operation, were probing the potential political significance of the Red build-up—the largest concentration of Communist manpower since the war began—without, however, ignoring the alternative contingency of an all-out Red push aimed at driving the allies into the sea.

They explored the possibility that the Communists had massed such a large number of troops to make a show of strength in order to be in a strong bargaining position should terms for a Korean settlement come up for discussion in the near future.

These observers linked possible Chinese political moves to a statement by the new British Foreign Secretary Herbert Morrison that he believed that now is the psychological moment to try to stop the fighting in Korea.

May Reopen Crime Probes

WASHINGTON, April 4.—(INS)—Surrender of three alleged members of the Capone gang may result today in reopening of the Kefauver Senate Crime Committee's hearings.

The committee had voted not to hold any more open hearings in the 30 days of grace given it by the Senate to write its report and frame new legislation.

The group originally was scheduled to go out of existence March 31, but a 30-day extension was voted and there are indications the committee may be continued for considerably longer than that.

Second Anniversary Of Signing North Atlantic Pact

WASHINGTON, April 4.—(INS)—President Truman has announced that the free Western European nations have doubled their military production in the last two years but warned that "the road ahead is still long and hard" in arming against possible Soviet aggression.

The president hailed the efforts of our European allies in a special statement marking the second anniversary of the signing of the North Atlantic Pact.

The president noted difficulties ahead but said:

Encouraging Fact
"The most encouraging fact which stands out today is that Europe is stronger and in a better position to defend itself than it was a year ago."

In a similar statement, Defense Secretary Marshall also praised the accomplishments in building European defenses but declared

Chicago Mayor Is Re-Elected

Democrats Hail Kennelly's Victory

CHICAGO, April 4.—(INS)—Chicago's Democratic party leaders—who suffered a major defeat last November—hailed Mayor Martin Kennelly's re-election to a second term today as assurance they still control the big-city vote.

Kennelly won a decisive 150,000-vote victory in yesterday's light balloting. Final returns gave him 687,871 votes to 545,326 for his Republican opponent, Robert L. Hunter.

The former businessman rode out a Kefauver committee probe and a Republican campaign centered about criticisms of the Truman foreign policy and of Democratic administration.

U.S. Troops Gain; Then Encounter Stiff Resistance

Tank-Led Troops In Gain North Of 38th Parallel Says Report

By LEE FERRERO
(L. N. S. War Correspondent)

TOKYO, April 4.—Tank-led American troops in west Korea drove a widening salient three or more miles north of Parallel 38 today, then ran into fierce resistance by Red forces entrenched on strategic heights.

On the opposite wing of the flaming 130 mile front, South Korean troops punched out a fresh gain of a mile to a depth of 16 miles inside Communist North Korea along the east coast.

In the ridge-lined central sector, American and other United Nations troops achieved further cautious advances Wednesday as they methodically erased one enemy pocket after another just south of the 38th Parallel.

Seek To Upset Red Offensive

All available UN ground combat forces, supported by masses of artillery and waves of planes, were pressing a concerted effort to upset a prospective counter-offensive by 600,000 to 700,000 massed Chinese and North Korean troops.

The surging Allied assault was aimed primarily at chopping into key road webs which the Red invaders were using to deploy their forces.

In the vital west sector, American tankmen and foot soldiers battled their way through heavy Chinese Red mortar and artillery fire to the vicinity of Topyong, three miles south of the celebrated 38th Parallel.

Storm Key Hills
There the Yanks stormed a series of key hills commanding the road leading northeast to Kumhwa, one of the enemy's main communication and supply hubs in the southern part of Red-dominated North Korea.

At last report, one of the American armored task forces was locked in battle with a stubborn Communist company clinging to a height near Topyong which is 35 air miles

Report Russia To Throw Planes Into Korea War

By FRANK CONNIF

TOKYO, April 4.—Far from being cowed by reports that Russia will throw thousands of planes behind the expected Chinese offensive, the Air Force around these parts awaits the prospect with tough steadiness.

While assuming that a large-scale entry of Soviet airships would give enormous impetus to the enemy stroke, airmen with a bent for strategy wonder if such a decision would not backfire disastrously on the Communists.

Pursuit Into Manchuria?
They assume, of course, that the artificial restrictions which now curb their combat action—inability to chase enemy fighters and bombers into the "privileged sanctuary" of Manchuria—would be swiftly removed once the Russian flyers came into the Korean struggle on an all-out basis.

"We would hope," one officer remarked dryly, "that the enemy wouldn't be allowed to tag up in Manchuria when we had him cornered and then come back to fight us another day."

Strategy Plays Big Part

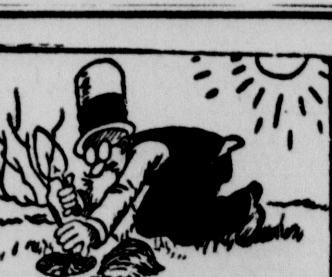

Strategy still plays a huge part in modern war, despite the absurdities and abnormalities under which the Korean war is being waged by the UN command. Rival commanders must weigh all the eventualities before committing themselves to a decisive action.

It is felt here that the Russians

Jury Awards $2,500 Verdict

Esther Guanciale Is Given Damages In Case Vs. Moose Lodge

Damages of $2,500 were awarded Esther Guanciale late Tuesday night by the jury trying her case against the Loyal Order of Moose, Lodge No. 51.

Miss Guanciale claimed her left eye had been injured the night of November 5, 1949 when a loaded cigarette exploded in her face in the social rooms of the Moose. She had asked $23,000.

Late Verdict

The jury took the case near 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon and debated it until about 9:30. When the jury reported a verdict was ready, Judge W. Walter Brahm was called to the court house and received the verdict.

After the jury had been given the case Judge Brahm said from the bench: "I notice some officers of the Moose are in the court room. I want to say that, following my usual practice where criminal violations are brought out in a civil case, I am turning this information over to the district attorney for his consideration."

District Attorney Sherman K. Levine had no statement today as to his possible action but indicated he would have a statement on Thursday.

W. P. Reuther Is Re-Elected

CLEVELAND, April 4.—(INS)—Walter P. Reuther was re-elected president today of the giant CIO-United Auto Workers Union by delegates attending the union's 13th convention in Cleveland.

The 43-year-old labor leader, who was given a rousing 29-minute ovation by the 2,500 delegates, was returned to office without opposition.

His re-election to a fourth term marks the first time in the history of the 1,250,000-member union that a president was selected without opposition.

northeast of Seoul, the recently liberated South Korean capital. Other American columns were plunging north of the Parallel dividing line to the west and east of the Poyong area as the Yanks expanded their bridgehead inside North Korea.

The U. S. Eighth Army's Wednesday night communiqué told of "moderate to heavy" Red resistance in the Poyong and Yonpyong sectors southeast of Yonchon which is six miles above "the 38th."

Make "Limited Gains"

The bulletin said the UN troops chalked up further "limited gains" in the west and central sectors during the day as they prosecuted a general advance designed to drive or blunt an expected Red "human sea" counter-drive.

Yonpyong is two miles north of the disputed 38th Parallel and 22 miles northeast of Uijongbu, above Seoul. Poyong is nearly three miles north of the artificial border and lies east of Yonpyong. It was in this area that the hard-hitting American armored columns crossed the Parallel in considerable strength Tuesday and smashed some three miles inside Red-ruled North Korea before encountering stiff enemy resistance.

The Eighth Army's Wednesday night summary said only "light" Red opposition was met during the day in the eastern sector where South Korea troops had pushed more than 16 miles north of Parallel 38 along the coast.

List 1,440 Red Casualties

The communiqué listed 1,440 Chinese and North Korean soldiers killed or wounded by UN ground forces in a 24-hour period. Additional casualties were inflicted by far-ranging American planes. One flight of F-80 Shooting Stars was credited with killing at least 300 enemy troops Wednesday in a single attack south of Pyongyang, the North Korean capital.

The entire UN army was thrown into the power-packed northward preventive drive to knock the poised Communist masses off balance. The crunching general advance was in progress along the whole 130-mile front across the peninsula.

Folks who are pining for spring to get here are reminded that there can still be quite a bit of rough weather ahead. On April 14 last year, folks awoke to find six inches of snow on the ground, and the temperature down to 10 degrees. However, the cold snap only lasted a day or two, and by the 16th, the temperature got back up to 62 degrees. From past experience, Pa Newc has found that spring generally doesn't arrive in all her glory until around the first week on May.

Rainy days are excellent sound-carriers Pa Newc has noticed. The harsh blast of the diesel horn carries as far as the melodious moan of the steam whistle even though trains may be miles away.

TROOPS ISSUE SENATE ACTION EXPECTED

through the amending process all over again on the second resolution.

Connally said a move would be made today to offer the finished language of the first resolution as the text of the concurrent resolution which follows. The second measure goes to the House, but like the Senate resolution, it will not have the effect of law.

Connally told reporters that the proposal for congressional approval of any more than four divisions, sponsored by Sen. McClellan (D Ark., "didn't help the resolution but didn't kill it."

Sen. Russell (D Ga., declared: "The resolution shows that both Congress and the president want to implement the North Atlantic Pact, but it is a poor export product. It discourages the very thing we want—for our Allies to make an all-out effort."

Taft admitted that he would have preferred a bill to a sample resolution but said that about all Congress can do is "state its opinion and stick to it."

The GOP policy chief said any president can "get the country into war no matter what Congress does—as Mr. Truman showed in Korea."

POSSE LOCATES KIDNAPED GIRL

vines, the soles of her shoes were worn through and she was near physical collapse.

The rescue ended one of the southeast Oklahoma's greatest man hunts.

The small party, led by Chester Palmer, a saw mill operator of Kinta, Okla., discovered the girl and her abductor, Robert Phillips, 22, once a rape suspect, in a deer hunting shack in the notorious outlaw haven about 45 miles north east of McAlester.

Tells Weird Tale
Miss Parris told a weird tale of her abduction before she was rushed away for observation in a McAlester hospital. She said she was assaulted.

She also said that she and Phillips had eaten only once and that was food which he had stolen from a mountain cabin. She added she was in constant fear of her life since he had threatened to kill her if they were found.

Phillips, armed only with a small knife, offered no resistance when the posse entered the cabin. A flickering fire which the man had kindled against the cold mountain air guided the searchers to the lonely shack.

Kidnaped Sunday Night
The girl was kidnaped Sunday night when a "curly-haired stranger" dragged her from a car in which she was riding with her companion, 17-year-old Bill Coghill.

Coghill reported to officers that the stranger forced them to drive into the country and vanished into the woods with the girl after the automobile mired in the mud.

Police at first doubted Coghill's story because of contradictions but later concluded that the discrepancies were caused by shock and fear.

Phillips, a one-time reformatory inmate and listed as a suspect in several sex offenses, said he was unable to explain why he abducted Miss Parris.

SOCIETY & Clubs

COLLEGE CLUB PLANS UNUSUAL PROGRAM

College club members will be both thrilled and amused when they witness characterizations of famous personalities by Hal and Ruby Holbrook at their meeting on Tuesday, April 10. The group will gather in the auditorium of the New Castle senior high school at 8 o'clock, instead of Donati's auditorium as previously planned.

The gifted couple were members of the St. John's Little Theatre group in Newfoundland during the past war. Following their marriage they continued their drama studies at Denison university, and it was there that the idea for their present program occurred to them.

The hosts committee for the evening includes Mrs. Robert M. Patterson, Mrs. Orville J. Brown, Miss Mae Eakin, Mrs. Lester P. Hauschild, Mrs. A. L. Hoffmaster, Miss Allura Leslie, Mrs. Howard McNamara, Miss Mary Ramsey, Miss Charlotte Taylor, Miss Shirley Taylor, Mrs. Ralph Weide and Mrs. Marjorie Young.

R.F.U. Class Gathers

Members of the Room For You class of the Emmanuel Evangelical United Brethren Sunday school were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William N. Spencer, Katherine street.

A devotional period and business meeting were conducted by Arthur Durlleser, president. During the business session, several projects were discussed by the group.

An informal social period followed the business meeting and at the close of the evening a delicious lunch was served by the host and hostess.

The April meeting of the group will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Diehl, Walmo.

C. D. OF A. COURT DINNER ENJOYED

A sauerkraut dinner with all the trimmings was enjoyed by upwards of 50 women of the Catholic Daughters of America, Court Teresa Irene No. 231, on Tuesday evening.

Long tables were nicely arranged for the occasion, with yellow tapers and lovely bouquets of jonquils adding to the festive color scheme. Miss Mary T. Rocks gave the invocation prior to the dinner. Dinner was served at 6 o'clock.

Tables of cards and contests were in play at the close of the meal. Prizes were captured by Mrs. Jennie Valley and Mrs. Mary Geddis for contests. Bridge trophies were won by Mrs. Elizabeth Dagnon and Mrs. Loretta Shriver; and 500 by Mrs. Anne Mulcahy and Mrs. Jessie Stenger. Special prizes were captured by Miss Rose Chill and Mrs. Elener Skudor.

Co-chairmen of the evening's party and who are responsible for making it such a huge success were Mrs. Rose Cypher and Mrs. Elener Skudor.

Aides included: door—Mrs. Marion Stafford; kitchen—Mrs. Hannah Wagner, Mrs. Alice Powell, Mrs. Catherine Gallagher, Mrs. Helen Nolte, Mrs. Mary Reider and Mrs. Anne Mulcahy; reservations—Mrs. Marie J. Metz; dining room—chairman, Mrs. Mary Brown; Mrs. Frances Donnelly, Mrs. Jennie Valley, Mrs. Mary Hagan, Mrs. Lena Frediani, Mrs. Mildred Nielsen, Mrs. Evelyn Woods; coffee—Mrs. Marie Campbell, Mrs. Margaret Heaney, Mrs. Irene Bingham, and Mrs. Rose Feller.

KOBELKA-SUMNER QUIET CEREMONY

Miss Ruth A. Kobelka, daughter of Andrew Kobelka, Sr., Pennsylvania avenue, became the bride of William Edward Sumner, son of Mrs. Lillian Sumner, Pearson street.

Vows were exchanged at a single ring ceremony performed by Rev. Ellmore in Winchester, Va., March 30. The groom, having been home on a two week's furlough from the Navy, reported for duty on April 2.

HARBOR GARDEN CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

New officers were elected when members of the Harbor Garden club met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Quincy Davy, with Mrs. T. G. Wallace as co-hostess of the occasion.

A report by the chairman of the nominating committee, Mrs. Wallace, disclosed the following new officers: president, Mrs. Robert Hoagland; first vice president, Mrs. Herman Byler; second vice president, Mrs. J. N. Pattison; recording secretary, Mrs. F. A. Pinkerton; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Harold Barber; treasurer, Mrs. S. A. Linton; and member-at-large, Mrs. J. E. Davies.

In imagination the members revisited Mexico with Mrs. J. M. Pattison, who thoroughly entertained the group with her talk of her recent trip to that country. She disclosed the fact that the fabulous city of Mexico City has a population of 3,000,000 and is a real beauty spot. Mrs. Pattison closed by relating several of the experiences she had and the lovely scenes viewed along the Pan-American route which had been followed.

Mrs. Robert Hoagland, the new president, named her program committee as follows: Mrs. Clifford Brydon, Mrs. Warren Johnson and Mrs. Stewart Gibson. Mrs. Ray Stall was the special guest of the event.

Mrs. J. E. Davies, retiring president, was praised for her excellent work in the club activities during the past two years. A delicious lunch was later served by the associate hostesses.

PAGING MR. HOOVER'S COMMISSION

Representative Paul W. Shafer, Michigan Republican, believes that the Hoover Commission—the commission on organization of the executive branch of the government—has another chore to do.

He wants it to come out of retirement to do another big job for the nation—this time to weed out the non-essentials from President Truman's $71.5 billion budget.

Mindful that the bi-partisan commission headed by former Republican President Herbert Hoover had worked unceasingly for two years on ways and means of streamlining the executive branch for greater efficiency and economy, Shafer introduced a resolution to reactivate it.

His resolution would provide "that the Hoover Commission shall become a permanent agency of the Congress, to meet at the call of the chairman, for the purpose of determining and recommending from time to time to the Congress such further steps in executive branch reorganization and such measures of government economy and efficiency as in the opinion of the commission may seem desirable."

As a result of the Hoover Commission's recommendations, 20 public laws and 26 reorganization plans have been adopted by the Congress. These reforms, comprising about 50 per cent of the Hoover Commission's proposals, are expected to save the federal government about $2 billion a year—no small sum even in these times of multi-billion dollar budgets.

Perhaps Congressman Shafer has something there. Maybe a revived Hoover Commission could bring more than a semblance of order, economy, and honesty to this budget proposed by the president.

EARNING AND HAVING

Because some political fiend invented the income tax—it was necessary to amend the Constitution to put it into effect—the figure of a worker's salary is illusory. All that counts is what he is permitted to keep, commonly known as take-home pay.

The larger the salary, the more drastically it is whittled down by the government. For those in the higher brackets the bite is, in fact, a mouthful.

The other day a major U.S. concern advertised in several cities for an executive to manage its properties in Central America. The job was to pay $25,000 a year—tax free. The responses were tremendous, the lure being the tax-free bait.

There were 2,100 applications, 100 long-distance telephone calls. Several company presidents now receiving salaries of $50,000 a year were eager to make the change.

These are days of high salaries and top wages, but—taking the devaluation of the dollar into account, the net is seldom more than pay received in similar lines before the income tax was initiated. One tax-free dollar would buy as much 40 years ago as five inflated and taxed dollars buy today.

PROFITABLE TRANSACTION

One of the current scandals in Washington has to do with the sale of a naval vessel by the government for a measly $20,000, which later was sold at a profit of $2,800,000. An ex-New Deal congressman is involved.

The mink coat affair has been forgotten, at least for the time being, while members of Congress ponder this latest raid on the taxpayers. Asked to reveal his associates in the ship deal, the ex-congressman indignantly refused, and politely told the investigators it was none of their business.

If everything was on the up-and-up, why hide the facts? What good reason could there be for concealing the names of honest men, engaged in an honest transaction? Certainly they are in no danger of prosecution, honest men that they are.

Why should the government be sticking its official nose in the business dealings of honest citizens?

It would be interesting to learn the names of those who sold the ship, knocking down a $3,000,000 government possession for $20,000. Didn't they know the value of ships, or were the oblivious to the nation's financial welfare? Will President Truman order their removal from office?

The taxpayers are entitled to know the names of these worthies, as well as whether they will be permitted to consummate similar deals in the future.

A new way has been found to gild the lily. A New York firm offers a toupee with a built-in bald spot.

There is always the possibility that in time everything in international relations will be settled except debts to the U.S.

Those in the business of making maps had better wait a while to see whether the borders of Russia are going to bend outward or inward.

Cleveland has moved its Oliver Hazard Perry statue for the fourth time. Looks like the old commodore just can't find a permanent harbor.

Some men seem to think 30 hours per week are a hardship, despite the fact they have 128 hours left in which to recover from the strain.

It may be true, as a psychologist says, that women have the keener sense of humor. But husbands have learned it doesn't pay to tell any funny stories when they arrive home around 2 a.m.

In View Of News Of The World

Gen. Eisenhower Warns Russia

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower has warned Soviet Russia that no new big four agreement can stand in the way of the inherent right of democracy to create a military machine sufficiently strong to ensure its defense against aggression.

This appears today to be the salient feature of his declaration on formally taking over "operational command" of the North Atlantic treaty organization's armed forces.

He usually taciturn supreme commander spoke at length to correspondents at his headquarters in France.

He deplored parliamentary delays in enacting legislation to bring an army of democracy into being.

He criticized the debate in Congress on the issue of sending American troops to Europe.

But most important, he put his finger on the nub of discussions among the big four foreign ministers' deputies in Paris by serving notice that no political considerations can outweigh the prerogative of western self-defense.

It has been apparent from the beginning that Soviet Russia's desire to hold another big four conference has been predicted mainly on the hope of preventing the rearmament of western Europe.

It seems fairly definite that the Soviet delegates to the Paris meeting have been won over to the western thesis that any big four agenda must give priority to the causes of tension in Europe at the present time.

Academic Victory
This, however, is an academic victory at best for the western powers.

U. S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson has emphasized time and again that Russian rearmament of the satellite states far beyond treaty limitations and above the real needs in protecting communication and supply lines is the real reason for trouble and the actual foundation stone of the "cold war."

The Soviets, the democracies have in contention that the North Atlantic Pact, West European defense measures and plans to utilize the military manpower of Germany are the stumbling blocks to cooperation.

What Gen. Eisenhower has done is to make it emphatically clear to Russia that the democracies have been driven by forces as yet beyond their control into adoption of a new military attitude and policy to replace the unarmed passiveness that has prevailed since the end of the second world war.

Clearly Unacceptable
The Russian proposal to scale down all armaments by one-third is clearly unacceptable to the West and will remain so while Soviet numerical superiority continues to exist in its present overwhelming strength.

There is one possibility, however, that never has been excluded completely.

This is the creation of a real United Nations army, to include the forces of Soviet Russia, and thus place the world on a balanced military keel that would make aggression by any power impossible.

Few European commentators of the present see any immediate feasibility in such a plan. There is renewed talk in continental capitals regarding resurrection of the old "balance of power" system—interlocking bi-lateral alliances and advance commitments to meet any emergency.

Entirely Counter
This would run entirely counter to the charter and the principles of the United Nations and would rule out for the foreseeable future the concept of open covenants and peaceful world cooperation that were envisaged when the organization was founded.

One thing is clear at the moment. If and when a new big four conference takes place, the Western position will be clear and unequivocal.

Just as the Russians take obvious pride in their military strength and ability in the art of arms, so are the Western powers learning, against their will, to accept this as part of their national life pattern. It is on this realistic approach that Gen. Eisenhower hopes to cloak democracy in invulnerable armor.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

APPRECIATING YOUR CHILDREN

One mark of a great teacher or parent is his sensitivity to the child's insights, creations and conclusions, which strike him as unusual in the light of the youngster's experiences. This parent or teacher is often citing instances of mental acuity in the child four, eight or fourteen, even in the adult, and almost never citing instances of stupidity.

The parent or teacher has arrived at this practice through self-cultivation of insights and appreciation of the child as a developing person. On the contrary, any adults lacking in such insight and appreciations seem to gain many satisfactions from observing instances in the remarks of children and adults, which indicate inferiority and stupidity in them.

Feel Superior
Human nature seems to prompt all of us to observe and report remarks and behavior in other persons which cause us and those who hear us to feel superior. Whether in a group of illiterates or a group of highly intellectual persons, a frequent source of levity is a remark by one person in that group about some other person, indicating that the person referred to is not very bright.

Often during a remark by a guest in the family a remark is made about some absent person, designed to bring forth smiles or laughter over the supposed dullness of the person talked about. Sometimes such remarks are made for fun in the regular family circle.

Cause Laughter
Among children at nearly all age levels, we may hear remarks about a person considered less bright, that are made to cause laughter. Constantly older children in the family ridicule younger brothers and sisters for their "stupid" remarks or "questions."

All too often parents and teachers make fun of children because of the innocent and honest utterances of these children. Who has never been guilty of this barbarity? Sometimes parents will even induce a young child to repeat a question or remark so their friends might laugh with them at the time. How frequently a teacher, especially at the junior or senior high school level, will make a statement designed to cause other youths to ridicule by laughter an embarrassed classmate because of something this youth has said with honest purpose, or as a student in the classroom. The urge to find more ways to feel superior prompts practically all such ridicule and sarcasm.

Unwholesome Practice
Teachers at luncheon with other teachers and parents mingling socially with other parents often cite instances of what they consider stupid remarks by their children. The attitude it reveals and encourages, it is an unwholesome practice.

Let us avoid and discourage the practice in our homes of expressing superiority over other persons, of ridiculing them as dull or stupid. Let us parents set a good example, never making fun of the remarks of our children or anybody else. Then let us guide our children that they won't seek pleasures through ridicule but rather that they might gain satisfaction from observing excellence in other persons.

May I not vainly hurt the feelings of my children. Forbid that I should laugh at their mistakes! appears in my "A Parent's Prayer" (to be had by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me at 235 East 45th Street, New York, N. Y.)

In our circles this never was considered an ideal peace speech whatever was the intent.

And apparently it's a popular official letterhead. "Washington's big fear now is that the citizenry is beginning to relax and we are all invited to tense up and shriek."

Odd that Washington should think the citizens were relaxing the impression we got of the Fulbright hearings was that it was the other way around.

Just goes to show how wrong you can be for the right reason.

The Man's Opinion

We are almost up to "Noise Abatement Week," but it's my guess more people are being kept awake by the shocking disclosures of the last few weeks than by automobile horns.

But anyway it will be a good quiet week if noise abatement includes gags for the people who are so loud about peace they sound warlike.

They are reminiscent of the type that would slap the bar and shout "I'm a peaceful man, but I'm willing to lick any man in the house."

PRINTER'S INK

From Observation Car

(By HENRY McLEMORE)

Observations from the observation car by a man who is riding coach: If when I die I am given the chance to return to earth I shall choose to come back as the Letters Section of most magazines and a lot of newspapers.

This is a place where you are praised nine to one. The Letters Section is where a man or a magazine can blow his own horn without quaking scoops he has scored. If they have any sense at all they remember these things, and if they have no sense they will take no recognition of a second notice.

What I am trying to say is they either have brains or don't have brains. You read things like this in columns: "The papers say today that Arthur Slipcover will marry a Bolivian beauty next week in Great Falls, Montana. No news to me. I told you as long ago as 1906 that this couple was a-doin' and a-fum' and were going to get together in the marital traces."

"Yolande Kefauver, member of the dance team of Yolande and Kefauver is spending her vacation at the home of her parents. Lots of people said she wouldn't take a vacation at all but as long ago as yesterday afternoon I predicted that she would spend it with Momma and Poppa."

"Joe Jones is en route to the coast. Albany is the capital of New York State. Hans Wagner was a shortstop."

Things like these are scoops. Very few people know that Joe Jones was going to the coast. I dare say nobody cared, save his wife, and the American and TWA Airlines.

Scoops like that come cheap. Come so cheap that even I, a newspaperman who owns the record of never having uncovered one, can produce a few myself.

For example, I am going to bed tonight at 5 minutes past 12 and I defy anybody but myself to know that. My wife likes her shoulder blades rubbed before she goes to bed, a task that bores me beyond belief, but which I perform faithfully each St. Chrispin Day. See how easy it is.

The editors of magazines who run these Letters Sections are not completely without the ability to get nauseated by what they are doing. They prove this by dropping an unfavorable letter every once in a while into these acres of verbiage. This I presume is to show that even magazine editors are human and do not shoot par all the time. But it is my observation that the letters of criticism are very short indeed, as if written by midwits with a post office pen.

They go about like this: "For 175 years I have read your periodical with great interest, and this is the first time I have anything to find fault with in it. In the Life of Mahatma Gandhi, Louis Fisher relates that although the late General Christian Smuts was compelled, in line of duty, to imprison Gandhi on numerous occasions, he used to send him religious books to read while he was in custody. Once, in South Africa in 1914, the imprisoned Gandhi made Smuts a pair of sandals which the General wore every summer for years."

On Gandhi's 70th birthday in 1939, however, Smuts returned the sandals to Gandhi with this characteristic note, "I have worn these sandals for many a day, though I feel I am not worthy to stand in the shoes of so great a man."

"Talk about coincidences," the late Al Jolson once boasted. "I was at the track yesterday when suddenly I realized it was the seventh day of the seventh month with the seventh race coming up. So I put 700 bucks on horse No. 7. 'And?' asked his agent. 'And,' concluded Jolson, 'he finished seventh.'"

Folks Of Fame
Peter Slick Tchaikovsky was born in Votkinsk, Russia, May 7, 1840. While holding office in the ministry of justice, he picked up some musical knowledge, then entered the Conservatorium of St. Petersburg. While at the conservatory he wrote his first opera which was a failure. His first success was his "B Flat Minor Piano Concerto". His ballet, "The Swan Lake", and the "Francesca da Rimini" fantasia were of a later period. He gained fame slowly in his own country, but much more readily in other European countries and in America, which he visited in 1891. His fifth and sixth symphonies are famous today, as is his "Nutcracker Suite." The sixth—the "Pathétique", was his last, for he died Nov. 6, 1893, in Russia.

Born in Denver, Col., Aug. 23, 1903, Charles F. Brannan was admitted to the Colorado state bar in 1929, and practiced in Denver. He served as regional director of the Farm Security Administration in Denver; then as assistant administrator of the Farm Security Administration. He was then assistant secretary of agriculture of the United States, and has been secretary of agriculture since 1948.

The Nimitz Commission

(By HOLMES ALEXANDER)

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 4.—The Nimitz Commission on Internal Security and Individual Rights may now be accurately described as 85,000 square feet of virtually unpopulated office space at 1405 G street, NW.

As this column appears, 93 days after the President's creation of the Commission and appointment of its nine members, there is one administrative officer, Harold E. Benson, at work in the expansive office, aided by three or four stenographers. The Commission itself held its only business meeting way back on February 15th. Since then Benson has been answering a dribble of letters, mostly from disgruntled government ex-workers who were fired under suspicion of disloyalty and want to know how to get their jobs back.

But aside from that office activity, and considerable lobbying on Capitol Hill, the Nimitz Commission has been spending its original grant of $25,000 on rent, light, weather conditioning and telephone charges. Yet the strange status of this much-heralded commission makes one of the best unwritten stories in town.

Especially Distressing

Shortly after the nine members agreed to serve and promised in Chairman Nimitz's words to "do our utmost to discharge that responsibility," somebody discovered that the service would involve considerable sacrifice. There is a series of laws known as the conflict-of-service statutes. These prohibit a person who takes Federal pay under such a commission from appearing as attorney or petitioner before the Federal government for a period of two years.

The prohibition was especially distressing to one Nimitz commissioner, the Hon. John A. Danaher, who is a former Republican Senator from Connecticut and also a very successful Washington lawyer. But he was not alone in his distress. With the exception of Fleet Admiral Nimitz, every one of the commissioners—even the two who are clergymen—felt that two years was too long for them to remain aloof from the Federal government.

So a bill (H.R. 2829) was submitted, asking for the special privilege of exemption from the conflict-of-interest laws. The bill slipped through the House on March 18th and was then referred to the Senate Judiciary Committee where it now seems likely to remain until after the presidential election of 1952.

This is a wheels-within-wheels story, which will require one or more additional columns to explore, but the main reasons for this embarrassing status of the Nimitz Commission may be summarized:

Not A Good Practice

First, the reluctance of the commissioners to make an inconvenient sacrifice has taken some nobility out of the cause. Danaher has appeared at executive meetings of the Senate committee and argued that H.R. 2829 is not without precedent. That is true. Lawyers who serve as legislative counsel for various committees are frequently given special exemption. But it is not a good practice, and the exemption is not commonly granted to commissions of any magnitude. The Hoover Commission did not get this special privilege. Neither did the Commission on Civil Rights. The Nimitz Commission, above all others, should separate itself from any suggestion of Federal influence.

Next, the blanket coverage of H.R. 2829 is highly suspect. The Senate Judiciary Committee, inclined to be friendly to ex-Senator Danaher, might well agree to exempt him and his fellow commissioners. But there's a joker in the bill. It would exempt any "individual (employed) by the Commission as an attorney or expert on a part-time or full-time basis, with or without compensation." This proviso would clearly open the way to the fraternity of white-wash lawyers, mostly Democratic favorites, whose recent investigation chores do not command, to use an understatement, much respect.

Main Reason For Stalemate

But the main reason for the Nimitz Commission's stalemate lies on the embattled field of McCarthyism.

Mr. Truman, to be sure, says he appointed the Commission "without thought of partisan advantage or political gain." Yes, but it doesn't take much political savvy to see that the Democrats will profit and the Republicans will lose an issue if the Nimitz Commission gets rolling.

The Fair Deal strategists would like nothing better than to button up the bothersome Communist matter in secret deliberations of a non-political commission. The GOP leaders have other ideas, which can be examined in a future column, about the study of internal security and individual rights. Meanwhile, to the Republicans, those 85,000 square feet of empty floor space make a beautiful sight to behold. (Distributed by McNaught Syndicate, Inc.)

Looking At Life

By ERICH BRANDEIS

May I continue yesterday's thoughts?

One evening during the hearings of the senate crime investigating committee in New York City, a few friends of mine went to a well-known night club for dinner.

Honest to goodness, we only went there to eat and to take some medicine for our colds. Both the food and the liquor in this particular place are of the best.

We knew quite a few people in the place and we talked to quite a few of them.

There was only one topic of conversation: The Kefauver investigation.

The verdict was unanimous: What a terrible mess these fellows have uncovered!

Everybody was righteously indignant. Everybody agreed that the whole thing was a shame and disgrace. Everybody pledged himself that he or she as an American citizen would do his share to remedy the awful situation.

Then everybody ordered another drink.

Now this particular place is one of the finest and most expensive in New York.

As I looked around I saw some of those very "lords of the underworld" just a couple of tables away.

I am told that several of them have an interest in the place.

Some of the liquor that was served was a brand mentioned in the crime investigation as controlled by one or more of the gangsters.

During prohibition the place was a speakeasy.

Among the crowd eating and drinking there were some of New York's very best people—doctors, lawyers, judges, bankers.

Among the women were debutantes, society matrons and some

In a little paper, "Commonwealth", published in Greenwood, Miss., there appeared an editorial on how to get the most out of going to church.

While I am not much of a churchgoer myself, that editorial inspired me greatly. What it said about the church may well be applied to everyday living.

"God's grace cannot get through to your personality through a tie-up body and mind," was one of the paragraphs.

"Practice spiritual contemplation," said another, "do not think about yourself. Think about God. Think of some beautiful, peaceful thing. Get mentally away from the world into an atmosphere of peace and refreshment. Go to church expecting some great things to happen to you. Perhaps a spiritual miracle may take place."

That miracle may take place in church or in our home. But it can never take place unless it takes place within ourselves.

Food Prices Are Discussed Here

Farmers Hear Expert On Price Question

While most everyone will agree that food prices, as well as prices on other commodities, are too high, they are not too high in proportion to increase in wages, George E. Brandow, Penn State College farm economist, told an audience, composed principally of farmers, at the court house, Monday evening.

Following a decline from around 1929 to 1933, when a record low peak was established, prices have continued to rise, setting an all time record in January of 1951, and are still higher, with the price of meat leading the procession. Taking a basic figure of 100 in 1929, prices have increased almost 15 per cent in the past year.

Wages Lead Prices
However, Mr. Brandow pointed out by use of graphs prepared scientifically, weekly earnings of wage earners, using the soft coal miners as an illustration, have shown a much greater increase in proportion, and in regard to wages, farm prices have lagged behind. The income of the man retired on a pension has remained fixed, and he is the forgotten man in the present situation, he stated.

Incomes of the average person, after taxes, is still running ahead of food prices about ten per cent, Mr. Brandow stated. In analyzing the money spent by the average family for food, the farmer has been getting about fifty percent of the increase in price, which rises for the farmer when prices increase and falls, when they decline. Although there was a decline from 1947 on, the farmer's share has risen since a year ago, he pointed out.

Peak Reached In 1947
The next income of farmers reached a peak around 1947, and will be around what it was for 1948, the cost of production cutting into income since that time. Net income in 1950 was low because the first half of the year was unfavorable, he stated.

Approximately seven percent of the total national income has gone to the farmers during the past 15 years. Mr. Brandow said, and while it has been down slightly for the past few years, will likely return to about the seven percent level this year.

County Branch Of PSEA Has Its Spring Dinner

Members of the Lawrence County branch of the P. S. E. A. had their annual spring dinner at Harlansburg, when a number of matters of interest to the county teachers were discussed, following a fine dinner.

Eugene Hill, president of the county branch, presided, and Miss Betty Smith, of Neshannock township schools, led in group singing.

John Lumley, president of the Pennsylvania State Education Association, was the speaker of the evening, discussing proposed legislation affecting education, which is now before the state legislature, and the effect it would have on the schools and teachers.

Miss Vernice Sager, president of the mid-west district, of the P. S. E. A., also spoke, and reports on the annual convention at Harrisburg during the Christmas recess were given by Miss Helen Workley, Edwin Beatty, and Eugene Hill.

Appelman Committee Members Gather

Executive committee of the "Christ for Greater New Castle Campaign", which sponsored the appearance of Dr. Hyman J. Appelman, in New Castle, met on Monday evening in the Y. M. C. A. Rev. George Jones, chairman of the campaign, was in charge of the meeting.

Plans were made for the continuation of the Christ for Greater New Castle fellowship, which will sponsor similar campaigns in the city. It was voted to conduct a meeting on April 27, for the purpose of electing a committee to take over the work. Rev. Howard Sattel, Rev. James Menzie, Ira Ramsey and Louis B. Round will serve with Rev. Jones to formulate a policy and program before the April 27 meeting.

The financial report of the campaign was presented by J. B. Welker, treasurer. It revealed that general receipts from all sources during the campaign were $12,207.89, with expenditures of $11,464.03, leaving a balance of $743.86 for future work. A few outstanding bills have not been received as yet.

Truman's Physician Called By Committee

WASHINGTON, April 4—(INS)—President Truman's physician, Brig. Gen. Wallace Graham, was called by a Senate committee today in connection with his promotion to be a major general.

Graham was summoned into a closed session of the Senate Armed Services committee at the request of two Republican members—Sens. Knowland, Calif., and Cain, Wash.

It is understood they want to ask him if he has had further commodity market operations.

Graham was the star witness several years ago during a Senate probe of commodity market speculation. He admitted at the time that he had dealt in commodities. Graham's promotion is before the Senate unit for confirmation.

Ne-Ca-Hi Dinner Dance Committee To Accept Gifts

Start a small snowball rolling and soon it becomes a large snowball. In this sense, the Lawrence County Industrial Union Council, started a small snowball, when they wrote the first check for $25 for the Ne-Ca-Hi School May 1951, extended dinner dance, on May 29.

The Ellwood City branch of the council followed suit, with an additional $25, making a total of $50.

Second on this list was the Bossert, New Castle Division, C.I.O., Local 4194, who sent a check for $100 to this year's dinner dance committee. Offering donations to this committee insures parents that their graduating sons and daughters will be in good company and in safe keeping on Tuesday evening, May 29—the date of the extended dinner dance. Adding to this committee's fund will keep the graduates off of the streets that night.

Sam Frank, chairman of this year's dinner dance announced these first donations and voiced his gratefulness. All labor, fraternal, civic and veterans groups will be asked to give contributions to the committee to assure the graduates of a good time, filled with clean, wholesome fun.

The presentation from the Lawrence County Industrial Union Council was made by George T. Barberio, president. Officers of the Bossert Local are: president, Virgil Livermore; Sam Hadad, vice-president; and Harry Atlas, treasurer.

The committee thanked the two labor groups for their contributions, and voiced their hope that additional organizations and groups will follow suit, to make this year's party a successful one—socially and financially.

Cabinet Shakeup Planned In Spain

MADRID, April 4.—(INS)—Well-informed sources in Madrid said today that Generalissimo Francisco Franco is planning a sweeping shake-up in an effort to deal with growing unrest throughout Spain. Franco is said to fear that unless radical measures are taken, new large-scale food riots and protests against the high cost of living may occur.

At his last cabinet session, Franco is said to have upbraided his ministers for failing to keep him informed of the gravity of the situation.

ABOUT 800 LAID OFF
CAMDEN, N. J., April 4.—(INS)—The R.C.A.-Victor division of the Radio Corporation of America announced today that about 800 employees at four plants had been laid off temporarily, because of a production cutback.

A company spokesman blamed the move on shortages of materials, seasonal factors, and changes from commercial to defense production in some plant areas.

The affected factories are located at Canonsburg, Pa.; and Bloomington, Marion and Indianapolis, Ind.

BABY BURNS TO DEATH

GREENSBURG, Pa., April 4.—(INS)—An eight-month old baby boy was burned to death last night in a fire that destroyed a frame home in Greensburg.

Mrs. Charles Mock, mother of the infant, was about to save her two-year-old daughter by passing her through a window to safety.

Firemen said she was unable to reach the younger child in another part of the room. Mrs. Mock was treated for a cut hand.

Quito, capital of Ecuador, is nearer the equator than any other capital in the world.

CLEVELAND, OHIO—Spectators watch as the first tank produced by a civilian company since World War II rolls by on a test track for a trial run during the official unveiling at the Cleveland airport bomber plant here. The tank is the light T-41, the "Walker Bulldog" named for the late General Walton H. Walker, and is the first new tank to be designed for the Army since the last war. Being built by the Cadillac Division of General Motors Corp., the tank weighs 26 tons and has a new type high-muzzle velocity 76 MM gun.

Father Of Union Township Teacher Dies In Oil City

Word has been received here of the death of F. M. Schantz, Oil City, father of John R. Schantz, teacher and coach at Union township high school.

Mr. Schantz served as physical director of the Oil City Y.M.C.A. since 1919, until confined to his home for the past year due to illness. He died Tuesday morning at 3:45.

Besides his wife, Ida May Schantz, and son John, he is survived by another son, Frederick M. Schantz, Jr., of Oil City and two daughters, Mrs. William McClaren of Jusepin, Venezuela, and May Schantz at home.

Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon in Oil City.

Oak Street P.T.A. Group To Gather

Members of the executive board of the Oak Street P.T.A. will gather in the teachers' room of the school on Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

Four Are Saved From Burning Home

MILTON, Mass., April 4.—(INS)—A Boston architect today dropped his wife, daughter and maid from a second story window into the arms of waiting policemen and then leaped to safety himself from their flaming home.

Rescued were Mrs. Catherine H. Graton, 39, her daughter, Charlotte, 17, the maid, Mary McManus, 33, and the architect, Bowman Graton, 42.

The fire was discovered by the maid, who aroused the others after telephoning an alarm to police headquarters. The policemen placed a metal garden table on the slightly slanting roof of a low patio. Two officers held the table, while two others stood on it, extended their arms and caught the falling occupants, one by one.

Wampum Man Hurt In Peculiar Manner

Glenn Allen, aged 43 years, of Wampum, suffered a dislocation of the right shoulder in a peculiar accident, this morning.

Mr. Allen was driving his car, and in rounding a sharp curve, gave a quick turn on the steering wheel, which threw the shoulder out of joint. He received treatment at the Jameson Memorial hospital.

The attachment of alarms to clocks is attributed to a monk, as early as 996.

Red Wings Top Canadiens, 4-1

(By International News Service)

The favorites are beginning to show their expected form in the National Hockey League's semi-final Stanley Cup playoffs.

Detroit's defending champion Red Wings trounced the Montreal Canadiens, 4 to 1, before 14,428 fans at Montreal last night to even their best four-of-seven series at two games apiece.

And the Toronto Maple Leafs forged to a 2-1 edge in their series by stopping the Boston Bruins, 3 to 1, before a crowd of 13,154 fans at Boston Garden.

It was the second straight triumph for both Detroit and Toronto, the pre-playoff favorites.

The wings and Canadiens resume their series tomorrow night in Detroit while the Bruins and Leafs next meet in Toronto Saturday.

Local Youth First Dependent To Enlist In Europe Command

John W. Fairweather, Jr., formerly of 1010 Summit street, became the first military dependent in the European command to enlist in the military service, when he enlisted in the air force at the Wiesbaden air base in Germany recently.

An article and picture in the Wiesbaden Air Force News told the story of John and his enlistment in the U. S. air force in Germany.

John is the son of Sgt. First Class and Mrs. John W. Fairweather, who moved from New Castle to Karlsruhe, Germany, where Sgt. Fairweather was assigned to the 552nd AAA Bn. in June, 1949.

John, Jr., returned to the United States in 1949 to complete his schooling. He was graduated with the New Castle high school class of June, 1950.

He worked at the Youngstown Sheet & Tube plant in Youngstown before earning enough money to return to Germany. He arrived in Germany on Feb. 17, 1951, and X-ray pictures were taken on Tuesday. On Tuesday night his condition was fair.

Extensive research is underway on precision-casting of large air-frame parts.

Oldest Congressman Celebrates His 85th Birthday Today

(By International News Service)

CHICAGO, April 4.—(INS)—The nation's oldest Congressman celebrated his 85th birthday anniversary today and said he had no plans for retiring because he wants to "set a new record for service."

Adolph J. Sabath, Democratic representative from the 7th district on Chicago's west side, has held his seat continuously since 1907.

Another Illinois Congressman, the late House speaker "Uncle

Joe" Cannon of Danville, served a total of 46 years and Sabath hopes to beat this mark by winning again in the 1952 election. He said:

"You're as young as you feel—and I still feel pretty young—not the same as I did at 16 but I'm looking forward to spending my 50th year in Congress."

Sabath, who came to the U. S. 70 years ago as a 14-year-old immigrant from Czechoslovakia, will spend his birthday working at his law office and attending a party tonight at the home of his niece and nephew.

There are 82 affiliated United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organizations and 30 student and youth UNESCO clubs in Japan.

TIP TO NEW CASTLE MEN WHO HAVE "CIGARETTE THROAT"... SWITCH TO MILD KENTUCKY CLUB

Smoke a Pipe — and the Thoroughbred of Pipe Tobaccos

Are cigarettes "getting" your throat? But it's tough on the nerves to give up smoking.

So—here's a practical tip. Switch to Kentucky Club—and discover the pleasure of smoking a pipe. You'll find you smoke less, feel better and save money.

Maybe you've tried a pipe before. But—HAVE YOU TRIED KENTUCKY CLUB? Because there's all the difference in the world between smoking Kentucky Club and ordinary harsh, strong tobaccos.

Kentucky Club is made from choice white Burley—blended as only Kentucky Club experts know how. That's why it's so mild and smooth and has such a grand taste and aroma.

Get your first tin of Kentucky Club today. Try it for a week—and see how satisfying a pipe is when you fill it with Kentucky Club—the thoroughbred of pipe tobaccos.

Produced by the Makers of Famous MAIL POUCH TOBACCO WHEELING, WEST VIRGINIA

P. S. IS MONEY IMPORTANT TO YOU?

Then it's worth knowing that a tin of Kentucky Club costs less than a pack of cigarettes—usually lasts 3 to 5 days. Many cigarette smokers save over $2.00 a week when they switch to Kentucky Club—get more pleasure out of smoking, too.

Court House

All Women Jury
In Court Room 2Ladies To Decide
On Beating Charge

Twelve women will decide whether or not John Kasicky should pay damages for a beating he is alleged to have given Julia Biega.

In court room two Tuesday afternoon the case came up for trial and the entire jury selected its women. The plaintiff claims she was beaten badly by the defendant in the Polish Alliance club house in Ellwood City in November 1949.

Earlier in the day the jury trying the case of William and Martha Eppinger against J. V. Marzula found both sides guilty of negligence and returned a verdict for the defendant. It was a case that never should have gotten to a common pleas jury, the damages claimed being about $160. It arose out of a crash at the corner of Water and South Mill streets.

SIMILARITY OF NAMES

A similarity of names sometimes causes embarrassment. Joseph Paglia of 305½ East Lutton street said today he is not the Joseph Paglia who testified in the case of Esther Guanciale against the Loyal Order of Moose. The witness Paglia resides at 222 South Jefferson street.

NO SMOKING PLEASE

No smoking is permitted in the court rooms of Lawrence county and the prohibition is even more stringent against it in the jury box. One of the jurors this week didn't know it apparently and decided to have a few puffs as he heard the testimony. Court Crier Clifford Vance caught it in a moment and ordered the juror to stop.

Believe Shah Of Iran Will Be Able To Maintain Order

WASHINGTON, April 4—(INS)—The State department today expressed confidence that the Shah of Iran will be able "to maintain order" in his troubled country. Department spokesman Michael

J. McDermott repudiated a statement attributed to Assistant Secretary of State George McGhee under a Tel Aviv dateline last week to the effect Iran is "threatened with chaos" but the United States does not intend to interfere. McDermott said:
"Secretary McGhee has consistently stated to press representatives that the situation in Iran is not clarified sufficiently to permit comment."
"While Mr. McGhee and the department recognize the disturbed situation there, neither feel Iran is threatened with chaos."
"They are confident of the Shah's ability to maintain law and order."

THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY OF PENNSYLVANIA

To Ask Wilson Price And Wage Controls Plans

WASHINGTON, April 4.—(INS)—The Senate-House watchdog committee on price-wage controls asks Mobilization Director Charles E. Wilson today to tell them what is around the corner in the war on inflation.

Wilson is the first witness as the 10-man unit opens an investigation of how economic controls are working out and what should be done to halt soaring prices.

The hearings opened as the Department of Labor announced that retail food prices dropped two-tenths of one per cent between February 15 and March 15.

Chairman Maybank (D) S. C., said that when Wilson was before the watchdog group in February, he was just getting his office set up and didn't have anything specific to recommend.

Maybank said:

"We want to know what they are thinking about. They didn't have any ideas then. Now we think it is time they had some ideas."

LEFT SMALL ESTATE

LONDON, April 4.—(INS)—The will of the late Waslaw Nijinsky, one of the greatest ballet dancers of all time, was made public today and showed a net estate of $84.

Nijinsky, who spent many years in sanatoriums for the mentally unfit before his death last year, often commanded thousands of dollars for a single performance.

He was 60 at the time of his death.

House May Send State Income Tax Bill To Senate

HARRISBURG, April 4.—(INS)—House Republicans were braced today to send a proposed flat one-half of one per cent income tax bill to the Senate over Democratic opposition.

Majority leader Charles C. Smith expressed confidence that the proposal, designed by Gov. John S. Fine to collect 119 of 163 million dollars in new revenue during the 1951-53 biennium, will be ready for Senate action next week.

House minority leader Hiram G. Andrews, who made a fruitless effort to have the bill recommitted to the House Ways and Means committee for public hearings, saw no chance of the bill's defeat.

"Only a miracle can stop it now," he said. "The orders are to pass this bill at all costs and apparently the opposition in GOP ranks has been beaten into line."

STRIKE IN FOURTH DAY

GREENSBORO, N. C., April 4.—(INS)—The strike of 40,000 southern CIO-textile workers went into its fourth day today with little hope for early settlement.

The strike has taken a crippling hold on textile production in most of 47 mills in six states and brought textile output to a virtual standstill.

The union is seeking a 13 cent hourly pay boost, cost-of-living escalator clauses and a pension plan. As yet, no new attempts at negotiation have been made.

The Mississippi-Missouri river system is approximately 3,983 miles long.

Whitewashing Of Trees Harmful

A practice that is quite common across the land is that of whitewashing tree trunks. Whether it is done to dress up the trees or an idea that it is a preventive against insects.

It is worthy of mention that whitewashing trees of any species is harmful. This can cause a lot of damage, as trees take in a certain amount of air through the bark, so thick layers of white-wash shuts off the air supply and the tree cannot breathe and function properly.

Lt. Thompson Is Accorded Honor By Crime Clinic

At the meeting of the Western Pennsylvania and Eastern Ohio Crime Clinic, held in the Pick-Ohio hotel, in Youngstown, Tuesday noon, Lt. Jack D. Thompson, of the New Castle Police Force, was elected one of twelve trustees to serve for a two-year period.

Following the election of trustees, this body met and elected officers to serve the association, which resulted as follows: president, Edward J. Allen, Jr., chief of police of Youngstown; vice-president, Ralph P. Steen, chief of police of the Erie Railroad Company, Youngstown; secretary and treasurer, Carl M. Wolter, assistant secretary and treasurer, C. A. Vimmerstedt, Youngstown police force.

Following the business meeting, luncheon was enjoyed in the Cascade room of the Pick-Ohio hotel, when the group was addressed by Mayor Charles P. Henderson.

The Crime Clinic, which was organized at a meeting held in March, is designed to promote better communication between law enforcement agencies of Western Pennsylvania and Eastern Ohio, and the dissemination of information on crime activities.

First player signed by the newly-organized Erie Sailors of the Middle-Atlantic league was Dick Wertz, of Newport, captain and first baseman of the 1950 Penn State baseball team. Wertz, who was graduated in mid-year, posted a perfect 3.00 scholastic average in his last semester on campus.

Brushes which can be attached to a garden hose have been developed for washing motor cars.

Highland Builders Give Biblical Play

"Out of the Darkness," a Biblical play by John McGreevey, was presented in Highland United Presbyterian church on April 1, by the Young People's Builders group of the congregation. The play was given under the direction of Miss Jeanne Lewis, of the New Castle senior high school faculty.

The program, which was well-attended, was much appreciated by the audience. Beautiful costumes, which were worn by the players, are from the Orient. A spring morning in the year 54 A.D. was the time of the play.

The cast was as follows: Bernice, Harriet Miller; Urias, William Broadus; Drusilla, Marlene Johnston; Titus, Ronald Meek; Ruth, and Mary Carol Printz.

Betty Higgins was assistant director, while Walter Merritt and Bruce Miller were stage managers. John Vance, Kenneth Sampson, David Dayton and Robert Cowden served as ushers.

The junior choir, directed by Edward C. Book, sang two anthems with Miss Temoy McFate as accompanist. Mrs. S. Glenn Mc-Cracken, church organist, was accompanist for group singing. Prayer was offered by John A. McGrath.

Mrs. Thomas Shreffler and Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Rape are sponsors of the Builders' group.

EN ROUTE TO GERMANY

WASHINGTON, April 4.—(INS)—The Defense department announced today that Air Force Secretary Finletter is en route to Weisbaden, Germany.

Finletter left Washington by air last night. He will inspect U. S. Air Forces in Europe, and return home this week end.

Twelve American GI's Return To U.S. Lines In Korea Today

(BULLETIN) CENTRAL FRONT, KOREA, April 4.—(INS)—Twelve American GI's, who had been held prisoner for almost two months by the Chinese Communists, returned to American lines in Central Korea today.

Most of the Americans were in fair physical condition. Five other Americans were found Monday by a tank-infantry patrol.

Bishop J. Z. Jasinski Dies At Buffalo, N. Y.

Bishop John Z. Jasinski, D. D., S. T. D., head of the Buffalo-Pittsburgh diocese of the Polish National Catholic church, died Monday at Buffalo, N. Y.

He was ordained to the priesthood of the Polish National Catholic church on December 12, 1917. In 1928 he was consecrated Bishop of the Buffalo-Pittsburgh diocese. In 1938 he was one of 16 delegates from the United States to the Provisional Conference of the World Council of churches at Utrecht, Holland, where he addressed the international assembly of religious leaders.

Bishop Jasinski is well known in New Castle, through his pastoral visits to the Holy Trinity Polish National Catholic church, Miller and South Jefferson street. His last visit here was in 1948, when he administered the sacrament of Confirmation to a large class.

The Rev. Fr. E. C. Kuzminski, pastor of Holy Trinity church will leave for Buffalo, Thursday afternoon and will take part in the funeral of the Bishop on Saturday morning. Fr. Kuzminski will return to the city late Saturday evening.

Thaddeus Stevens P.T.A. Has Meeting

Members of the Thaddeus Stevens P.T.A. met Tuesday evening at the school with Mrs. Jack Cort conducting the meeting. The P.T.A. prayer was read by Mrs. George Jones, with group singing under the direction of Mrs. Clare Lutz.

The group decided to send a donation to the building fund at National Headquarters in Chicago. Representatives will be sent to the Southwestern District Conference to be held at the Cathedral Saturday, April 21.

The members were impressed with the program on "Civil Defense" which was presented by Richard Davis and Waldron Curley. Refreshments were later served under the direction of Mrs. Crawford Richards and Mrs. Don Potter. The next meeting is scheduled for May 1.

Report Experiment Confirms Claim Made In Argentina

By DARRELL GARWOOD
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, April 4 — A secret U. S. experiment successfully containing multi-million degree temperatures in a vacuum chamber today was reported to confirm Argentina's announcement that sun-like heat can be created on earth.

One government scientist said the temperature was achieved in an extremely small quantity of material, and that whether the energy process of the stars can be charted is still a big question mark.

The scientist said that the principle of the experiment was a "small sun" suspended by a vacuum while atomic-speeding machines fired large numbers of high speed particles into it to raise its temperature.

He pointed out that all metals melt under a few thousand degrees and that millions of degrees would have been impossible except that a vacuum does not conduct heat.

In another interview Dr. Hans A. Bethe, Cornell University's widely known atomic authority, said that there is a secret way to get multi-million degree temperatures that conceivably could start a sun-like reaction.

An example of a process that may be employed is provided by the stars called red giants, which operate at temperatures of 2,000,000 degrees Fahrenheit compared to 38,000,000 degrees for the sun, and which get their energy from lithium and hydrogen.

CHURCH IS DAMAGED

SMETHPORT, Pa., April 4 — (INS)—Thieves last night stole the jacks which were holding a nearby First Methodist church building frame in line until a new foundation could be built.

Removal of the jacks damaged the church.

Unsung Poets

Most of us think of poets as a peculiar breed of creature! Depending on our point of view, we look at them with awe or with contempt. Yet almost every child has something of a poetic touch; he sees the world around him in unique ways.

There's the five-year-old holding one of those chocolate-covered pieces of ice cream on a stick. As the chocolate covering begins to slide off before he can eat the whole thing, he says, "Oh, look, my ice cream is undressing."

Or the nine-year-old who is having a laughing, chatty conversation with his mother. As they are talking, a breeze springs up and sets some Japanese wind chimes jingling. "They're laughing with us, mother," he says spontaneously.

Language can be fun. Too often, parents and teachers forget that simple fact in trying to mold children into the "right" way of saying things. While it is important to learn some of the regular forms of written and spoken speech, children should be encouraged to develop the picturesque way of writing and speaking that seems to come naturally to them in the early years.

New York Gives French President Hero's Welcome

NEW YORK, April 4—(INS)—New York City Tuesday gave French President Auriol a hero's welcome, complete with confetti and tickertape when his motorcade rolled up lower Broadway.

The visiting chief executive heard cheers of "Vive La France" from the tens of thousands of spectators who lined the world-famous thoroughfare to catch a glimpse of the 16-car motorcade. Thousands of others based in Manhattan skyscrapers cascaded tons of confetti and tickertape on the French hero who admitted that he wouldn't have missed the Broadway paper shower even though he is suffering from a sore throat and a bad cold.

President Auriol, on a mission to cement friendship between France and the United States, was greeted in the council chamber ceremony at city hall by Mayor Vincent Impellitteri. He made the mayor a commander of the Legion of Honor.

In return, Mayor Impellitteri presented the French president with a scroll of the city for distinguished and exceptional public service.

Auriol paid tribute to New York as "a living international democracy embodied in one single city."

He added: "France, like you, hates regimes of oppression and desires peace in freedom. France admires you, understands you and loves you." The mayor in welcoming Auriol described him as "friend of freedom and friend of the United States."

Swedish Sailors Who Jumped Ship Ordered Deported

DETROIT, April 4—(INS)—A special immigration commissioner in Detroit ordered the deportation Tuesday of four Swedish sailors who jumped ship to see the United States.

The sailors are Kjell Comstedt, 18; Keith Ostling, 18; Gilbert Johnson, 22; and Karl Soderberg, 18.

The seamen left their ship, the S. S. Stockholm, when it docked in New York, March 22. They were picked up as vagrants in Columbus, O., and shipped to the District Immigration office in Detroit for deportation hearings.

Met' Is Going Into TV Next Season

NEW YORK, April 4—(INS)—The Metropolitan Opera is going into TV next season.

Rudolph Bing, general manager of the Met, also announced: The engagement of Alfred Lunt as a stage director. Lunt and his wife Lynn Fontanne comprise one of the best known teams on the American stage.

That Norwegian soprano Kirsten Flagstad has been persuaded to return to the Met next year despite the "retirement" she announced on March 26.

Bing said the Met's television department will function apart from the stage productions at the opera. It will produce operatic programs in studios and seek commercial sponsors for them.

Lunt's first task in the Met's 66th year will be to stage a new production in English of Mozart's "Così fan tutte" which has not been given by the Opera Company for 23 years.

Seeks New Rules For Televised Congress Events

WASHINGTON, April 4—(INS)—The conductor of television's smash hit—the senate crime hearings—called today for a set of rules and regulations on televised congressional proceedings.

Chairman Kefauver (D) Tenn., of the crime investigating committee, said that television has made urgent a new code for congressional committees, whose hearings are now governed largely by the chairman's wishes.

Kefauver called for settling the controversial question whether a witness should be compelled to testify before television cameras. He also asked a uniform policy concerning newsreels and radio.

Light-eyed persons are more subject to eye-strain than dark-eyed persons.

Sacred Concert At Castlewood Church

The internationally famous tenor of Oslo, Norway, Elvin Bjornstad, will present a sacred concert this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Castlewood Alliance church. This celebrated dramatic tenor presents the Gospel of Christ in "Song and Story" in a most helpful inspiring manner.

He is rated as the best Gospel soloist on the American platform today, by outstanding church leaders.

Search Launched For Missing Pilot

MONTGOMERY, Ala., April 4—(INS)—A search over eastern Tennessee and the western Carolinas was launched Tuesday by air rescue planes for a missing Ohio National Guard pilot.

The pilot, flying an F-51, disappeared Sunday night while flying from Warner-Robins Air Force Base, Macon, Ga., to Wright Patterson Field, Dayton, Ohio.

His flight leader, who landed safely at Dayton, said the last radio message he received from the missing pilot said: "I'm picking up heavy ice."

The flight of two planes ran into heavy weather about 55 miles south of Knoxville, Tenn. They flew on instruments, maintaining contact until that final radio message was received. Air rescue service authorities said the message was sent when the missing plane was near Calderwood, Tenn.

WHY this TAX DISCRIMINATION AGAINST ME by the Congress?

Pay envelopes...FULLY TAXED in advance! Salary checks...FULLY TAXED before you even get them! New increases voted by Congress. More coming, so Congress says!

But, at the same time, little or no income tax at all on the profits of giant Cooperative Corporations, many Mutual Companies, Building and Loan Associations, Credit Unions. Congress has petted and coddled these BIG BUSINESS enterprises by giving them tax exemptions through TWO World Wars...still has done nothing to make them bear their fair share in the present emergency. But with you, it's different. Congress discriminates against you...forces YOU to pay MORE because Congress allows these big TAX-EXEMPT BUSINESSES to pay little or nothing.

PROTEST THIS INJUSTICE!

Write your Congressman and Senators. Protest increases in YOUR income tax while Congress allows these tax-exempt big businesses to continue to pay little or nothing. Demand that Congress act immediately to TAX THE UNTAXED—FULLY!

CLIP, SIGN AND MAIL THIS TO YOUR CONGRESSMAN

I protest having my income tax raised while Congress continues to let certain business enterprises—co-ops and others—pay little or nothing. Repeal the pertinent paragraphs of the Internal Revenue Law under which these businesses escape the income tax. Define their profits as taxable at the corporate level before distribution as patronage dividends or in any other manner.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

FOR MRS. PRITCHARD

Mrs. Eugenia Pritchard, of New Castle, was guest of honor at a birthday dinner party held April 1 at a suburban tea room by her daughters and sons-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Mont (Beatrice) Emrick, of Pittsburgh, Mrs. Frank (Geneva) Robison, of Trenton, N. J., Mr. and Mrs. John (Pearl) Dankel, of Poland, O., Mr. and Mrs. Ralph (Mildred) Snyder, of New Castle, and Mr. and Mrs. Marshall (Florence) Curran, of New Castle.

Also helping to celebrate their grandmother's 85th birthday were, Miss Lois Dankel, of Poland, O., Ralph and Robert Snyder, of New Castle, Marshall Curran, Jr., of New Castle, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley (Joan) Ward, of Pittsburgh, and Rev. and Mrs. Everett (Shirley) Spring, of New Castle, and daughter, Marsha Anne. Other guests joining in expressing felicitations to the honor guest were, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Moore and Mrs. Emma Steves, all of Youngstown.

The dinner party was held at five o'clock, with Rev. Spring giving the invocation. Lovely spring flowers enhanced the table setting. Mrs. Pritchard was presented with a birthday cake and the guests sang in unison the traditional birthday song. Mrs. Mont Emrick, oldest daughter, gave a toast in the form of a poem to her mother from the daughters, relating the history of each daughter from childhood to womanhood.

Mrs. Pritchard received many lovely gifts as a memento of the joyous occasion.

Later the guests returned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Curran, Walmor, where the remainder of the evening was taken up in informal chat.

Members of the Hasta La Vista club will be welcomed to the home of Mrs. Anthony Tommelio, 19 South Mill street, April 5.

EAGLESON-GALLOGLY MARRIAGE KNOWN

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Mary Margaret Eagleson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Robert M. Eagleson of 1406 East Washington street, to Donald L. Gallogly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis L. Gallogly of Mt. Vernon, O.

The double ring ceremony was solemnized March 30 at 7:30 o'clock in the Methodist church, New Concord, O., by Rev. Howard H. Patrick.

Miss Phyllis Corne of Indianapolis, Ind., college friend of the bride, served as maid of honor. Mr. Gallogly chose his former college roommate, Richard E. Brandt of Mt. Vernon, O., as best man.

For her marriage the bride selected an orchid street-length dress with navy accessories and an orchid corsage.

Her attendant was dressed in a beige suit with black accessories and had a corsage of pink carnations.

A small reception was held at the parsonage immediately following the ceremony.

The couple will take up residence at 203 West Main street, New Concord, O., following their return from a wedding trip.

ENGLE-McCULLOUGH EXCHANGE OF VOWS

Miss Peggy Ann Engle, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. G. Engle of East Grandview avenue, Zelienople, became the bride of Allen D. McCullough, of 153 Kelso Drive, Erie, Pa., son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. McCullough of Bradford, Pa.

The candlelight ceremony was performed at the Harmony-Zelienople Presbyterian church on Friday evening, March 30, at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. Richard A. Davis officiated at the double ring ceremony, with vows exchanged before the altar that was decorated in ferns, palms and cathedral candles.

Appropriate nuptial selections were provided by Westminster college friends of the bride.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a white Chantilly lace gown, fitted bodice and long sleeves. Tiny buttons featured the bodice front, with the full skirt ending in a full court train. Her Chantilly lace Juliet cap was edged in seed pearls and held her fingertip veil of nylon tulle. Orchids and sweetpeas made up her bridal bouquet.

Her maid of honor, Miss Pat Wedel, also a classmate, was gown in shrimp colored nylon tulle over satin. She carried carnation carnations in her bouquet.

Mrs. R. G. Engle Jr., sister-in-law of the bride, and Emmogen Beam were bridesmaids. They wore mint green nylon tulle styled like the bride, and carried pink and white carnations.

Jerry Hyder served as best man, and the guests were ushered by R. G. Engle Jr., brother of the bride; and Paul E. McCullough, brother of the groom.

A wedding reception followed the ceremony, with the bride and groom later departing for a honeymoon in Canada. They will reside at 153 Kelso Drive, Kelson Court, Erie, Pa.

The bride, a graduate of Zelienople high school, attended Westminster college, New Wilmington. The groom, a graduate of Westminster College, is a professional basketball player, just closing a season. He is employed by the General Electric company at Erie. Mr. McCullough is a member of Kappa Delta fraternity, and served in the Air Force during the last war.

The ceremony was solemnized Saturday afternoon, March 24, in the Geneva Reformed Presbyterian church by Rev. J. Burt Willison, pastor of the church. The double ring service took place at 4:30 o'clock.

Chantilly lace over white satin fashioned the bridal gown, which featured a cathedral train. Her fingertip length veil of white nylon marquisette was fastened to a Queen Anne crown. She carried a Colonial arrangement of Easter lilies, and also observed the "something old, new, borrowed and blue" tradition.

Miss Mary Lou Patterson attended her sister as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Beverly McClintock and Mrs. Leroy King of Beaver Falls. They wore pastel colored marquisette gowns with hats in shades to match. Miss McClintock in Nile green, Miss McClintock in orchid and Mrs. King in pale yellow. All the attendants carried Colonial bouquets of white carnations.

Little Sandy Szymkowicz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Szymkowicz, cousin of the groom, dressed in white organza, acted as junior bridesmaid. She, too, carried a Colonial arrangement of white carnations. The ring bearer was Freddy Latham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel D. Latham, Beaver Falls.

Louis Jasinski, brother of the groom, served him as best man and the ushers were John Grossglass, Beaver Falls, and Walter Szymkowicz, New Castle.

Guests were received at a reception held in the church parlors following the ceremony.

The bride pair left for a trip to Cleveland, O., and other points north.

The bride is a student at Geneva college and her husband attends Penn State.

After the church reception Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Jasinski held a reception at their home for relatives and close friends.

PATTERSON-JASINSKI NUPTIALS REVEALED

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Jean Patterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cameron M. Patterson, Beaver Falls, to Raymond Jasinski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Jasinski, West Mayfield.

Mrs. Anthony Jasinski, mother of the groom, is the former Mary Dudek of New Castle. The groom's grandparents were the late Mr. and Mrs. Louis Dudek of South Jefferson.

The ceremony was solemnized Saturday afternoon, March 24, in the Geneva Reformed Presbyterian church by Rev. J. Burt Willison, pastor of the church. The double ring service took place at 4:30 o'clock.

Chantilly lace over white satin fashioned the bridal gown, which featured a cathedral train. Her fingertip length veil of white nylon marquisette was fastened to a Queen Anne crown. She carried a Colonial arrangement of Easter lilies, and also observed the "something old, new, borrowed and blue" tradition.

Miss Mary Lou Patterson attended her sister as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Beverly McClintock and Mrs. Leroy King of Beaver Falls. They wore pastel colored marquisette gowns with hats in shades to match. Miss McClintock in Nile green, Miss McClintock in orchid and Mrs. King in pale yellow. All the attendants carried Colonial bouquets of white carnations.

Little Sandy Szymkowicz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Szymkowicz, cousin of the groom, dressed in white organza, acted as junior bridesmaid. She, too, carried a Colonial arrangement of white carnations. The ring bearer was Freddy Latham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel D. Latham, Beaver Falls.

Louis Jasinski, brother of the groom, served him as best man and the ushers were John Grossglass, Beaver Falls, and Walter Szymkowicz, New Castle.

Guests were received at a reception held in the church parlors following the ceremony.

The bride pair left for a trip to Cleveland, O., and other points north.

The bride is a student at Geneva college and her husband attends Penn State.

Berkman Takes Clairton Post

Leaves Wilkinsburg With Fine Record

CLAIRTON, Pa., April 4.—(INS)—Clairton high school, which recently dumped its football coach, shuffled the basketball set up last night and appointed Stan Berkman to succeed John Soich who "resigned" last week.

Berkman had coached at Wilkinsburg high school the last seven years but became miffed there when the baseball coaching job was taken from him.

Prior to taking the Wilkinsburg post, Berkman coached basketball for ten years at Monaca high school and compiled a terrific record.

His appointment to the Clairton post was interpreted by observers as another move by the Clairton school board to put the school on top in WPIAL sports competition.

Seek Opponent For Sugar Ray

Green Rejected As Unsuitable

CLEVELAND, April 4.—(INS)—Cleveland matchmaker Tom Stanley is looking around today for a new opponent for middleweight champion Sugar Ray Robinson in a bout scheduled for April 19.

Harold Green, the Brooklyn, N. Y., middleweight originally slated to fight Robinson, has been rejected by the Cleveland Boxing Commission. Commissioner Andy Putka said the commission felt Green was not a suitable opponent for Robinson.

Stanley said he will get in touch with the International Boxing club to get an opponent acceptable to the commission.

Foreign Ore Fields May Surpass Mesabi Range Says Campbell

CLEVELAND, April 4.—(INS)—The great iron ore fields in Venezuela and Quebec-Labrador may some day surpass the famed Mesabi range in capacity.

Tom C. Campbell of New York, editor of Iron Age, made that prediction to delegates at the 34th annual convention of the American Institute of Mining and Metal-urgical Engineers yesterday in Cleveland.

He said there may be a "heavy drain" on the Mesabi field for the next six or seven years before the foreign iron mines reach full production.

"The Mesabi reserve can be extended for 60 years or more," he said, "with support from foreign ores and taconite beneficiation."

The nation will probably approach a major deficiency in market scrap iron in the next year or so, he added.

Campbell also predicted that continuous changes in buying habits, a potential buildup in demand because of restrictions and increased population will "support the steel industry in its private decision to provide far greater capacity."

House Committee Votes To Authorize Destroyer Transfers

WASHINGTON, April 4.—(INS)—The House armed services committee voted Tuesday to authorize the transfer of nine destroyer escorts to four European and South American countries.

It approved a bill authorizing the transfer of two vessels each to France, Denmark and Uruguay and three to Peru.

The transfers are being made in accordance with the provisions of the mutual defense assistance act. Under an amendment of the act, Congress must specifically approve the transfer of all warships other than those which are smaller than a destroyer.

The ships to France and Denmark will be turned over to them as gifts while those being transferred to Peru and Uruguay will be sold for ten per cent of their value, estimated at $6,000,000.

Crowd Of 1900 Hears 'Barber'

Sung In English, With Success

Those musical purists who have contended that opera should be sung in the tongue in which it is written may still be unconvinced.

But to the crowd of 1,900 which heard Rossini's "Barber of Seville" Tuesday night in the Cathedral sung in English the purists' argument seems a losing cause.

They Understood It

A cast of young American singers presented the gay Italian opera but this time the audience knew what it was all about without reading a description of it.

"The Barber of Seville" is built around the theme that has stood the test of time. Boy meets girl in the first scene, some fuddy-duddy throws a road block in the second scene, love conquers all in the second act—curtain. It's as simple as that and as delightful.

Rossini might have been writing for the current year for his opera is gay and musical, and through it all runs the thread upon which civilization has been strung for ages—love.

Briefly the plot is this. Count Almaviva (Jon Crain) sees Rosina (Nadja Witkowska), a ward of Dr. Bartolo (Ralph Telasko). The old doc has winter in his hair but spring in his heart and has an idea he would like to marry his ward. It's strictly his own idea but someone has to bring the young lovers to a marital climax before the curtain falls and this job is done by Figaro (Richard Torrigi) the barber of Seville. Quite a character this Figaro, sort of an eighteenth century five percenter.

Witkowska Stars

Nadja Witkowska, who takes the part of Rosina, is a lovely young singer, a coloratura who wrapped her audience up early. Her range is wide, her tonal effects are crystal clear, her diction is a delight. In addition, she's an eye-fall. Jon Crain, who took the part of Count Almaviva, is a young, tenor who was heard here several seasons ago in a "Night in Old Vienna." He also has a top tenor quality that is a delight with diction that rivals that of his leading lady.

Richard Torrigi, as Figaro, was adequate musically, but highly satisfactory in his acting. The entire cast was refreshingly good, and the reaction of the audience proved that New Castle music lovers like what they like, and show it.

Miss Witkowska was delighted with the Cathedral auditorium. "Some day," said she, "I would like to do a recital in this marvelous auditorium." Register one vote in this corner for that.

Mr. Crain was equally vocal in his appreciation of the Cathedral. "I remember the first time I sang here how grand a place it was," said he. "I'm glad to be back."

The "Barber" was the third presentation of the season of the Metropolitan Concert Guild. It met the most popular approval of any thus far.

Pittsburgh Police Officers 'Kickback' To City Sum Of $1,300

PITTSBURGH, April 4—(INS)—Now it's the "kickback" which is making headlines in Pittsburgh newspapers. But this one's on the up-and-up.

It concerns police officers who collected sick pay overpayments from the city. A few of them were working at outside jobs, while supposedly ill.

A police captain, Rose Kennington, head of the Missing Persons Bureau, and three patrolmen paid back $1,300 to the city treasury yesterday which caused Superintendent of Police Harvey Scott to say:

"I think there'll be more, but the big ones are in."

The patrolmen face a hearing before the police trial board and probably will be suspended. The third, George Stone, already has been reprimanded and suspended for 30 days because he was caught working at an outside job while on sick pay.

Forty And Eight Wreck Is Planned By Legionnaires

Plans were made by Lawrence County Voiture No. 81, La Societe des Hommes et 8 Chevaux, to send a large delegation to the wreck planned for Voitures of the northwest district at the American Legion Home at Waterford, Pa., 15 miles south of Erie, on Sunday, April 15, at the meeting of the county Voiture in the Legion Home Tuesday evening.

The event will be under the direction of Erie County Voiture No. 462, and will bring together Legionnaires from all over the northwest district.

Other business was transacted with Chef de Gare Harvey G. Brinton presiding, and a hamburger fry followed the promenade last evening.

Of special interest is that John C. Catale is a brother of Cpl. Peter Catale who is on recruiting duty in Rochester, Pa., and Donald J. Mudrie, is the set-son of Master Sgt. Rocco Minniti, the recruiting sergeant in charge of the recruiting station in Beaver Falls, Pa.

Important items imported into Japan from Sweden include sulphite paper pulp, sulphite rayon pulp, iron and steel products and rosin.

Mechanical Nose Detects All Odors

BOSTON, April 4—(INS)—A highly sensitive mechanical nose for use in detecting all odors, from industrial fumes to deadly new military "nerve gases," was described Tuesday before the nation's chemists.

A report of the robot "nose" was read to the American Chemical Society meeting by Dr. Amos Turk, director of Research and Development, and Henry Sleik of the W. B. Connor Engineering Corporation, Danbury, Conn.

They said the new machine can measure odors and gases in concentrations of less than one hundredth part in a million parts of air.

The report said the nose machine was designed with a motor-driven blower which collects large volumes of contaminated air quickly and removes contaminants by the same method that is employed in gas masks.

The blower draws forty cubic feet of air a minute through carbon-filled canisters.

Through use with radioactive tracers and Geiger counters, the researchers said, the machine can be used in industrial areas to determine where contamination is occurring.

Ne-Ca-Hi Y-Teens Conduct Meeting

Second monthly meeting of the Y-Teens was held last Wednesday in the Y.W.C.A. A short business meeting was conducted discussing the Y-Teens spring Formal dance, held March 31 in The Cathedral.

Kathleen Essinger read the devotions. A large crowd was noted.

After the business, Mrs. Chester Dean gave a very interesting book review on "White Witch Doctor."

The book was about a missionary in the African Congo.

The next meeting will be held next Wednesday, April 11. A full attendance is desired.

Army Announces Program To Examine Those In Reserve

The Army has begun weeding out its physically disqualified reservists.

District Army headquarters recently announced a program to examine some 15,000 officers and enlisted men in the active and inactive reserve in western Pennsylvania.

All this is a part of a nation wide program to drop from the active and inactive reserve rolls those reservists who would not be eligible for physical or other reasons for possible recall to active military service.

Those who fail the exam will be notified that they either are being discharged from the reserves, or, upon request, are being transferred to honorary reserve which is composed of reservists not likely to be called.

The entire program, including physical and service evaluation is to be completed by July 31.

Each reservist will be notified by letter where and when he is to report for an exam.

Whale Meat Is Being Tried Out

JERSEY CITY, N. J., April 4.—(INS)—Today's blue plate special for 1,000 Jersey City telephone workers is pot roast—of whale.

J. G. Kayser, manager of the Bell Telephone Company's employee restaurant, said he is trying out the whale meat, imported from Norway, because of increasing resistance to the high price of meats.

In addition to the pot roast, Kayser said, the employees are being offered whaleburger, whale steak and whale goulash.

The "jigger" of liquor is equal to one dram.

W.C.T.U.-L.T.I.

Plaingrove W.C.T.U.

Plain Grove W.C.T.U. met at the home of Mrs. Edith Gardner, on March 28, for an all day meeting. The morning was spent in working on a quilt. At noon a delicious thirteen luncheon was served by the hostess and aides: Mrs. Martha McCommon, Mrs. Mary Winder, Mrs. Sara Stevenson, Mrs. Roberta McCommon and Mrs. Mina Neal. A social hour was spent with television programs being the main feature.

In the afternoon the regular meeting was held with Mrs. Ruth Shaw in charge of the devotionals. The first number on the program was a song by the organization, 'Christ for the World We Sing' followed by short prayers by several members. Scripture reading by Mrs. Shaw preceded another song, 'A Prayer.' Mrs. Shaw read an article called 'The Book.' This part of the meeting was concluded by the use of another song, 'Lead On Oh King Eternal.'

Mrs. Walter Rodgers had charge of the program which opened with solo by her young daughter Mary who sang 'Beyond the Ocean.' She was accompanied by her grandmother, Mrs. Philo Rodgers. Mrs. Vida McNulty read an article called 'The Magician's Hat.' A drama entitled 'When Two Great Souls Meet' was presented by Mrs. Florence Winder, Mrs. Sara Stevenson and Mrs. Roberta McCommon.

An interesting article was read by Mrs. Philo Rodgers. This was 'When They sang a Hymn.' Mrs. Rodgers discussed the memorizing of hymns and asked how many of those present could sing twelve hymns from beginning to end without having the words in front of them. A song entitled 'This is my Father's World' was followed by 'Flashes from the Signal' by Mrs. Pearl Patterson. An interesting quiz on the W.C.T.U. was conducted by Mrs. Walter Rodgers.

The business part of the meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Pearl Patterson. The treasurer, Mrs. Martha McCommon, gave the report showing a balance in the treasury of $29.89 with no unpaid bills. Reports by several departmental directors were given. A letter from the county director was read by the spiritual life director. The meeting was adjourned with the use of the W.C.T.U. Benediction.

The regular April meeting will not be held but the organization will take part in an Institute which will be at Herman church on April 12. This will be an all day meeting with a thirteen luncheon at noon.

THE GREAT ATLANTIC AND PACIFIC TEA COMPANY

Program Of Westminster Presented By President

"If Westminster college is to enter its second century of service to the community, it must have the facilities with which to do it."

In these words, Dr. Will W. Orr, president of the college, capsuled the money raising campaign which the college will start here with a dinner, on April 27. The goal is set at $1,245,000, of which over half a million is already pledged.

Pre-Campaign Dinner
Dr. Orr spoke at a pre-campaign dinner in the Castleton hotel Tuesday night which was attended by men and women who will head the campaign in Lawrence county.

The objectives of this Centennial Campaign of Westminster college is a five pointed one. They include the Freeman Science Hall and Equipment estimated to cost $350,000. Russell Hall Dormitory and furnishings $500,000. Memorial Field House and athletic field, $250,000. Endowment $100,000. President's home, $45,000.

Of these, the president's home is already an accomplished fact due to a gift of the J. S. Mack foundation. The Memorial Field House is under way and is expected to be completed late this summer.

"Westminster never expects to be a large university," said Dr. Orr. "We believe it will serve its purpose as a small college but to be efficient, it should be equipped to handle an enrollment of 1000 or a little more."

Every One Is Vital
"Every one of the five points is vital to the success of the college. The Memorial Field House is not primarily for larger basketball crowds. If another basketball game were never played there it would still be necessary for Pennsylvania insists that physical education must be taught."

"The men have not done so badly, but frankly the women have been cheated in the physical education program. We plan to have a well rounded program that will include all sorts of physical education for both men and women."

Science Hall And Dormitory
"The science hall was built when Westminster had about 300 students. We want to enlarge its usefulness and establish a building for chemistry. A dormitory for freshmen men is vital for freshmen should not be expected to live in private homes if proper discipline is to be maintained."

"Westminster is New Castle's college and New Castle is Westminster's city. The present enrollment shows 247 young men and women of Lawrence county in Westminster."

Dr. J. Calvin Rose Presides
The dinner meeting was presided over by Dr. J. Calvin Rose, pastor of Second United Presbyterian church who is the Lawrence county chairman of the campaign. He spoke briefly before introducing Dr. Orr. Dr. Joseph Hopkins, Centennial Director outlined the methods to be followed in the campaign. A number of questions were asked and answered.

The kickoff dinner for the campaign in Lawrence county will take place on April 27. At the dinner it is hoped to have a large crowd of workers present to the end that the campaign will get under way successfully.

ARMED FORCES DAY
WASHINGTON, April 4—(INS)—President Truman today proclaimed May 19 as Armed Forces Day.

The President signed the proclamation in a ceremony in his White House office which was attended by the heads of the Defense departments and the joint chiefs of staff.

Mr. Truman called on the nation to render homage to the armed forces who "are now fighting and dying on foreign soil in defense of the principles of freedom which this nation has cherished since its birth."

NOTABLE MEETING OF BROTHERS AT REUNION IN NEW CASTLE

Y-Teen King Reigns At First Annual Formal

At the first spring formal for senior Y-Teens of the New Castle area, Johnny McKay was chosen Y-Teen King to reign with his court of five other candidates at the Y-Teen Spring Formal in the Cathedral ballroom.

Members of the court were Pete Barber, Edwin Gorgas, Johnny Sassone, Harry Wright, and Dave Lewis.

The name of the King was drawn from a gold crown before introduction by Miss Dorothy Stewart, executive director of the Y.W.C.A. With decorations following the theme of an enchanted forest of silver tree branches and blue lights, 104 Y-Teens and their escorts danced to the music of Jack Sheen's orchestra.

Entertainment at the intermission period included the crowning of the Y-Teen King by nine-year-old Linda Johnson and three-year-old Cheryl Grannis, both dressed in long formal gowns for the ceremony.

For the pleasure of the King and his court and others present, Doris Meister sang "Some Enchanted Evening," Frankie Sniezek and the Y-Teen choir sang "Dancing in the Dark," and Jackie Funkhouser and Nancy Lumley presented an interpretive dance number to "The Blue Danube."

Adults guests present for the evening included Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Gross, Mrs. R. H. Prentice, Miss Carrie Mae Rantz, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Rigby, Mrs. Earl J. Smith, and Miss Dorothy Stewart. Y-Teens present were from Ne-Ca-Hi school, Ellwood City, and Union township. The committee of Y-Teens working on preparations was headed by Barbara Bender and Mary Lou Devite, assisted by Jackie Funkhouser and Sherry Plonka.

Catholic Auxiliary To Attend Sessions

New Castle Catholic War Veterans Auxiliary will be represented at the state convention scheduled in Pittsburgh, April 24, 25, 26. These plans were made at the recent regular meeting, presided over by President Jennie Domiano.

President Miss Domiano and Frances Ruscelli are to attend as delegates. The rosary led by chaplain, Rev. Fr. Albert M. Inteso was recited and opened the meeting. Miss Domiano presided. First vice-president Frances Corio announced plans for the Holy Year pilgrimage scheduled locally. A few of the members made the pilgrimage on April 1.

Second vice-president Julie Venditto announced the success of the membership campaign. Mrs. Anna Alfano, welfare officer, stated that old nylon hose are being collected so that veterans may make rugs. Old greeting cards and used stamps are other items being collected.

Communion Sunday is scheduled for April 22, at the 9:45 a. m. mass in St. Vitus church. A spiritual bouquet will be offered at that time for Eugene F. Taggart, national advocate, who died recently. A white elephant gift was won by Mrs. Clara Colella and the door prize by Mrs. Phil Venditto. Dainty refreshments were served by hostesses: Mrs. Anna Alfano and Betty Amadio. Friday, April 13, is the next meeting.

To Romans, oysters were "the dainty manna of the sea."

INFORMATION FOR WEDDING GIFT

"The daughter of one of my friends will soon be married at a formal church wedding. A reception will follow at a clubhouse. My husband will not be able to attend either the wedding or the reception. Will it be all right for me to go without him? How shall I acknowledge my acceptance and his regret? Since the invitation is acknowledge by telephone, I shall wear a long dinner dress. Must I wear something on my head? The wedding is to be at seven in the evening."

Answer: You must send a formal acceptance to a formal invitation. Yours might be worded as follows: Mrs. Robert Jones accepts with pleasure Mr. and Mrs. John Smith's kind invitation for Saturday (date) at seven o'clock.

Your husband, since he will not be able to attend must send his regrets separately, substituting for the second line—regrets he is unable to accept. The rest will be the same, except that the time may be eliminated.

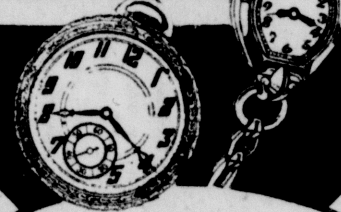

You need not wear anything on your head, unless the church rules require it.

Question: My son is to be married in a short time. While I have always been of the opinion that the bride's family should have the wedding reception, I have recently been told that it is given by the family of the groom. Who is correct?

Answer: The bride's family gives the wedding reception, always.

Meal Processors Can't Pass On Any Increase In Prices

PHILADELPHIA, April 4—(INS)—Victor E. Moore, regional OPS director, reported today that some meat processors are "passing on" increases in meat prices in the mistaken belief that this is legal.

Moore said the difficulty seemed to be a misunderstanding of a provision permitting a "pass through" of increases in certain listed agricultural commodities. He added:

"Meat is definitely not on that list. No processor may pass on to the retailer and the consumer any increases in the price he pays for meat."

PIN-WORMS MAY BE A FAMILY AFFAIR

Fidgeting, nose-picking and a tormenting rectal itch are often tell-tale signs of Pin-Worms... ugly parasites that medical experts say infect one out of every three persons examined. Entire families may be victims and not know it. To get rid of Pin-Worms, these pests must not only be killed, but killed in the large intestine where they live and multiply. That's exactly what Jayne's P-W tablets do... and here's how they do it:

First—a scientific coating carries the tablets into the bowels before they dissolve. Then—Jayne's modern, medically-approved ingredient goes right to work—kills Pin-Worms quickly and easily.

Don't take chances with this dangerous, highly contagious condition. At the first sign of Pin-Worms, ask your druggist for genuine Jayne's P-W Vermifuge.

The small, easy-to-take tablets perfected by famous Dr. D. Jayne & Son, specialists in worm remedies for over 100 years.

Safe Drivers Are Honored

Bell Telephone Co. Adds Four Drivers To Safety Clubs

Four Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania employees who have driven company vehicles a total of 550,000 miles without being responsible for a single accident, were honored Tuesday night at a special safety dinner meeting in The Cathedral.

Two of the men were inducted into the Hundred Thousand Mile Club, Bell organization of men who have driven that distance safely. They were William J. Beck, of 1345 Glenwood Drive, Sharon, a cable splicer, and Joseph H. Swaney, RD 3, Beaver Falls, a private branch exchange repairman.

Each received an engraved wallet and certificate from David R. Ingalls, general plant manager of the company.

William L. McCoy, RD 3, Aliquippa, a PBX repairman, received a special award on the completion of 200,000 miles of safe driving, or double the requirement for membership in the club.

The fourth man honored was Chester A. Brenner, of 482 Wengler avenue, Sharon, a commercial representative, who has now completed 150,000 miles of safe driving.

Mr. Ingalls, in making the awards, announced there are now more than 1400 members of the safety club throughout the state. G. C. Powers, Jr., district plant superintendent, was chairman of the meeting.

Moosic Man Jailed For Refusing To Pay Home Town Wage Tax

SCRANTON, Pa., April 4. —(INS)—Carl Turner, 30, of Moosic, Pa., was jailed Tuesday for refusing to pay a wage tax in his home town.

Alderman Joseph Eiden sent the Moosic resident to Lackawanna county jail when Turner spurned all offers on various payment plans and refused to say why he wouldn't pay the wage tax.

Eiden freed six other defendants who made tax settlements.

Remington Given Permission To The Typewritten Appeal

NEW YORK, April 4.—(INS)—The U. S. Court of Appeals Monday granted counsel for William W. Remington permission to file a typewritten instead of a printed copy of Remington's trial record in connection with a pending appeal.

Remington, former Commerce department economist, is free in $7,000 bail following his federal court conviction for lying when he told a grand jury he never was a communist.

Former corporation counsel William C. Chanler, chief of Remington's defense attorneys, asked permission to submit the typewritten record on the ground that his client cannot afford to pay for its printing.

ASHES

Smoking seems to be a very popular accomplishment or habit nowadays. Some folks say that it is harmful but doctors and nurses do not seem to have found it out yet.

Grandma smokes a pipe when the preacher isn't around. She is 81 but Granddad says that she might have been 90 by this time if she had let the pipe alone.

Aunt Jane says that it is not good for nursing mothers to smoke cigarettes.

Dad says that he doesn't think it hurts much so long as Mom is careful not to drop ashes into the baby's eyes.

Ward Civic Club Meets Tuesday

Mark 48th Anniversary
Of Harry Elder In Ward

At their headquarters on North Liberty street the Seventh Ward Civic club gathered Tuesday for their dinner meeting, with a large attendance.

On entering the dining room we observed a lovely cake confronting Harry Elder, one of the members, commemorating the 48th anniversary of his arrival in the Seventh ward.

President Fred McLure congratulated Mr. Elder on his anniversary, of his accomplishments in the business of the ward and his interest in its progress and advancement. Mr. Elder graciously replied, thanked all for their kindness, and spoke of the great progress made in the ward over the long years. Mr. Elder cut the cake and distributed it among his fellow members.

Ray Horchler spoke of the survey he had made of the ward some time ago; of the need of an union railroad station in the ward, and of a suitable location; of the large amount collected by the railroads from passengers and industrial interests in this vicinity, and felt that this location should have better consideration. President McLure said he would find what the Greater New Castle Association had on record of former efforts made for the union station.

Matter of waste paper and magazine collection on April 18 was discussed. Notes will be sent from school Friday urging the parents' cooperation. Joe Weller said he would contact councilman Richard Davis regarding the "spring cleaning" in the ward.

Rev. O. G. Shindler mentioned having attended a meeting for better housing in the city and suggested that President McLure attend their next meeting.

Chairman W. C. Bollinger and Scoutmaster Bill Weitz spoke of more help needed in the handling of the scout situation in the ward and for additional members to the Scout committee. The matter was taken under advisement.

Troop Committee And Mothers, Scout Guests

Mothers and troop committee members were guests of Senior Girl Scouts No. 1 at the home of their leader, Mrs. Clarence Shumaker, of Mt. Jackson, road during the weekend.

Shirley Fullerton was in charge of the opening exercises. Nancy Trotter presided over the business session and introduced Mrs. Emily Rice, commissioner, who gave timely remarks.

Mrs. D. B. Forsythe, executive director, explained the types of senior programs that the girls might like to explore. A discussion period followed.

Mrs. Edward Bradley, council member, was present, also Mildred Bradley, associate member of the troop, a student at Wooster college, was a guest.

A social period followed and the troop committee served a tasty lunch. Mrs. Harold Wilson, Mrs. Harold Wallace and Mrs. Robert McKim.

New members of the troop committee are Mrs. Virgil Thompson and Mrs. William McClelland from the sponsoring group. Mrs. Harold Wallace's time expires this year.

Girl Scouts No. 61 Have Investiture

Regular meeting of the Girl Scouts No. 61 was held on Monday evening in Mahoning school, with leaders, Mrs. Edward Rainey and Mrs. Charles Tuscano, in charge.

During the business session, in charge of Karen Thomas, preliminary plans were made for a mothers and daughters tea in May. Investiture ceremony was held, when Loretta Priscaro was invested as a new scout.

Patricia Gorgacz, Patricia Finnin, Anita Domenick, Mary Lou Ezzo, Janet Mosely, Edna Hill and Florence Strayer were winners of the relay contest and will be rewarded at the next meeting.

Following a song period, directed by Mrs. Tuscano, a friendship circle was formed. The meeting closed with singing of "Taps." Next meeting, April 9, in the school at 6:30 p.m.

Holy Name Group Plans Community Breakfast

This evening there will be an executive meeting of the Holy Name society of St. Lucy's church in the auditorium of the church at 7 o'clock.

Plans will be completed for the communion breakfast Sunday morning, April 8, following the 7:30 mass.

In the evening at 8 o'clock there will be the regular monthly meeting, Joseph Zumpella, president.

Mahoning P.T.A. Plans For Election

In the teachers' room of Mahoning school there was a meeting of the executive board of Mahoning Parent-Teacher Association Tuesday afternoon, with Mrs. Mary Zumpella, president, in charge.

Matters pertaining to the coming general meeting Thursday evening, April 10, at 7:30 were discussed. At that meeting there will be the annual election of officers.

Lepore Baseball Team Plans Meeting April 8

At the service station, corner of East Madison avenue and North Liberty street, the Lepore American Legion baseball team will meet Sunday, April 8, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. William Lepore, president.

Three Mt. Lebanon Girls In Auto Wreck At Columbus, Ohio

PITTSBURGH, April 4.—(INS)—The search moved to the Columbus, O., area today for three young girls who disappeared last weekend because they feared war would start before they finished school.

"We'll all be dead then," they had written in a note which their parents found many hours after Louise Kelley, 14, her sister, Josephine, 12, and a friend, Olive Christman, 15, departed in the Kelley family car late Saturday night.

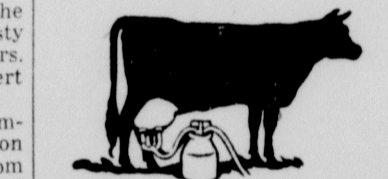

Mt. Lebanon police are angry because they feel Columbus officers should have apprehended the runaways during an automobile accident in the Ohio capital early Sunday.

The girls' car had sideswiped another auto, struck a house and was wrecked completely, according to Mt. Lebanon police.

AFRO-AMERICANS WITH NEW CASTLE

New Uniforms For Nurses

—Acme Telephoto

NEW YORK—Anxious to relieve the shortage of nurses, Uncle Sam decided on a revolutionary idea—redesigning their uniforms. The old, heavy cotton uniforms, always starched stiff, have given way to nylon, the idea being to make them feel and look like dresses. Elaine Stewart (right) models the new uniform while Phyllis Hunt wears a cocktail dress. The girls seem to like them and the patients, especially the masculine ones, like them even more.

Pulaski Twp. Dog Owners Arrested

Continuing his arrests of dog owners who have neglected to procure licenses and tags for their dogs this year, Dog Law Investigator Howard E. McLure, made 30 arrests in Pulaski township, Tuesday.

Informations against the dog owners were made before Justice of the Peace H. M. Reynolds, and hearings will be held in these cases on April 10, at 2:30 o'clock.

In many cases where such informations have been made in the past many of the dog owners have appeared before the Justice of the Peace and paid the fines and costs, waiving the necessity of a hearing.

Mr. McLure stated today that he expects to continue his investigations in evasion of the dog law and will continue prosecutions, until all dog owners have complied with the law.

Wolves Club Has Fathers-Sons Event

A most enjoyable evening was held on Tuesday by members of the Wolves club the occasion being the annual fathers and sons banquet. About 100 were present and sat down to a delicious meal at 6:30 o'clock.

After dinner President George Scavazzo extended the welcome and introduced program chairman, Frank Sgaraglino. The latter gave due credit to the following aides on his committee in planning the delightful evening: Angelo Frediani, Angelo Chiafullo, and Joseph Cozza.

The first performance on the program was given by Dave Alter, high school student at Senior High. Dave thoroughly entertained the audience with his clever impersonations and humorous readings.

Speaker of the evening was A. G. Capezutti, of Butler high school. Mr. Capezutti gave a toast to the fathers and then to sons. His topic for the evening talk was "Being Fair to Children."

He stressed the importance of fair dealing with the children and stressed the importance of fair dealing with the children and stressed the importance of fair dealing with the children.

Sons of the members attending the affair were thrilled with the clever and magical antics of the magician, Everett Duncan. Mr. Duncan who is reputed to be one of the best magicians in eastern Ohio and western Pennsylvania, displayed his powers in a most exciting half hour.

Gifts of pen and pencil sets with names engraved were displayed. These sets will be given to sons of members who are in the service: Vincent Donati, Donald Frediani, Joseph Leta, Jr., and Frank Malizia.

All children present were presented with gifts at this time. The meeting concluded with a bowling session. April 17, is the next meeting.

LAWRENCE COUNTY

TB ISOLATION HOME

LOCATED ON ELLWOOD CITY-NEW CASTLE ROAD—BETWEEN MUNICIPAL GOLF COURSE AND COUNTY HOME

OPEN FOR INSPECTION SUNDAY, APRIL 8th AFTERNOON AND EVENING

Lawrence County now has its own Isolation Home to care for those afflicted with Tuberculosis, who are waiting for admission to a State Sanatorium. Because of the crowded conditions in State Sanatoriums, it is not always possible for a patient to be admitted at once for care and treatment. Therefore, while a patient is waiting for admission, and after he or she has been listed through Dr. D. L. Perry, head of the State Clinic, North St., New Castle, Pa., a patient will be eligible to enter the New Isolation Home and stay there until he or she is called to the State Sanatorium for treatment. No medication or treatment will be given at the new Home—it is merely a place to rest and to be isolated from others. No charge will be made for this care—however, contributions will be gratefully accepted.

Without the full cooperation of the Lawrence County Commissioners, Mr. Harvey Bush, Mr. "Jokey" Travers and Mr. Joseph Gilmore, it would not have been possible to establish this Home. The Commissioners made available to the TB Society, the Home and put it in condition for occupancy, at a cost of over $4,000.00. TB Society funds, and contributions made by Lawrence County citizens, Clubs and Organizations, have furnished the Home as comfortable as possible. It is not a hospital, but a comfortable Rest Home, that Lawrence County residents should be proud of.

No patient will be admitted to the Home, if he or she is now a patient at any TB Sanatorium. Inquiries have been made as to whether a patient from Lawrence County now at a State Sanatorium, would be permitted to leave the Sanatorium, and return to New Castle—then be admitted to the Home. This will not be possible—the Home will only accommodate 6 patients, and only those who have been listed through Dr. Perry, and upon his recommendation, will be eligible.

Ellwood City Tuberculosis Society is a part of this project—they will pay a percentage of the total cost of establishing the Home, and will pay their share towards the maintenance of the Home. Patients from Ellwood City will have the same privileges as patients from New Castle.

On Sunday, April 8th, you are cordially invited to inspect this Home, any time during the afternoon or evening, and see just what your purchase of Christmas Seals has helped to make possible. It is located on the Ellwood City road, just this side of the County Home. A sign will direct you to the road leading from the Ellwood Road.

The Home will be under the supervision of a Board of Trustees appointed by the Lawrence County and Ellwood City TB Societies—J. Roy Mercer, Irwin W. Stunkard, Mrs. John Hough and Mrs. F. J. Tomasson. Mrs. Jessie M. Stenger has been appointed by the Trustees as Chairman of the Board. Mrs. Jane M. Cochran, has been appointed Executive Secretary of the Board of Trustees. Mrs. Kathryn Homberg will be in charge of the patients, and will live at the Home. The second floor of the Home has been completely remodeled by the Commissioners, into a comfortable and attractive apartment for Mrs. Homberg. Patients will be permitted to have visitors. However, no child under the age of 16 years will be admitted to the grounds, after the opening day. Visiting days will be announced later. Patients will be admitted to the Home beginning April 16th, 1951.

Government Sets Aside One-Fifth Of Lead Supply

WASHINGTON, April 4—(INS)—The government set aside one-fifth of the nation's supply of lead Tuesday for the manufacture of bullets and other types of military equipment.

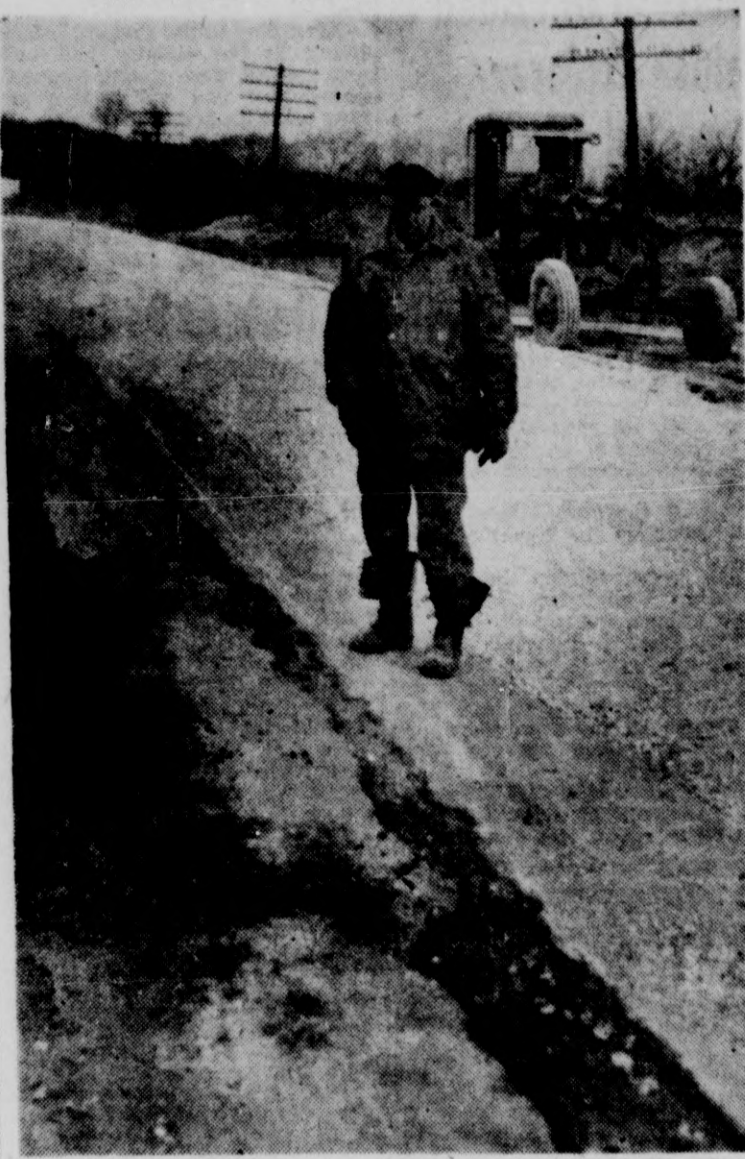

The National Production Authority made the reservation in a lead conservation order limiting non-defense manufacturers to the same amount of lead they consumed during the first six months of 1950.

Inventories of lead were reduced from the presently ordered 60-day supply to 30 days and NPA said "the order will have the effect of limiting the further use of lead as a substitute for other materials in critical supply."

In another action, NPA authorized its field office at Louisville, Ky., to approve or reject applications for commercial building permits under government regulation.

Providence, R. I., was so called in 1636 by Roger Williams "in gratitude to his Supreme Deliverer."

SEEK CAUSE OF HIGHWAY SINKING

Route 18 near the Piedmont farm, north of Moravia, has dropped from 18 to 24 inches in a section from 50 to 75 feet long. Engineers from the Highway department are seeking the cause of the drop. The road seems to be sinking down instead of sliding down the hill side. Since a similar thing happened last summer, in a lesser degree, the engineers feel there must be some quicksand under the roadbed. George Fobes, grader operator with the State Highway department, is shown pointing to one of the large cracks in the paving.

THE PLAGUE OF THE SEA

SCURVY—a disease as old as the art of sailing. A disease that brought sore, cankerous gums, teeth that loosened and fell out, hemorrhages and purpled skin... And it seemed that this curse was directed especially at the sailors. That the lack of fresh vegetables and fruits in their diet was the cause of the disease wasn't known until 1747 when Dr. James Lind discovered that lemons and limes were a remedy for it. Limes were then added to the British Navy's diet and His Majesty's sailors no longer had Scurvy, but ever since they've been called "Limeys".

A name or reputation can last a long time. We're proud of the reputation we've gained in your community and we'll do our best to keep on deserving it... by the prompt and accurate filling of your prescriptions.

Step Up Enlistment Program For Women Officers In USMC

PITTSBURGH, Pa.—The United States Marine Corps has announced a step-up in its procurement program to obtain candidates for the women officers training class. Captain Gilbert A. Barrett, in charge of marine officer procurement in the western Pennsylvania area, has announced that there are still a number of openings in the women officers program for college graduates and college sophomores, juniors and seniors who may wish to commence officer training this summer.

Candidates must either have a baccalaureate degree from an accredited college or be enrolled in such a college in a four-year baccalaureate course. Age limits are at a minimum of 18 at the time of enrollment, and under 25 on July 1 of the year in which they will be eligible for commissioning. Graduates and seniors will be commissioned upon completion of two six-week summer training periods, while sophomores and juniors will be commissioned upon graduation from college after having attended two summer training classes.

During the first summer training class candidates hold the rank of corporal and are paid in that grade, while the second and final course they are sergeants with the pay of that rank. In addition, transportation, equipment, clothing and subsistence expenses are defrayed by the government.

Interested women may contact the Marine Corps recruiting office, Post Office building, New Castle.

ROSE POINT

Mrs. Audrey McClymonds entertained the teachers and officers of Oak Grove Sabbath school Thursday evening, March 29. Plans were made for a contest in the Sabbath school in the next three months. After the business meeting, dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Madge Armstrong.

Members of the Rose Point, Mercer and New Castle Reformed Presbyterian churches gathered on Friday evening at the Rose Point church to hear an interesting message delivered by Rev. Argos Zodiates from the island of Cyprus.

The Rainbow Missionary society of Oak Grove church met on March 22 at the home of Mrs. Agnes Shaffer, Harbor road. The day was spent sewing and at noon a beautiful twelve dinner was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Esther Conrad and Mrs. Martha Hogue. The meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Margaret George. Mrs. Esther Conrad led the devotionals and the Mission Study was reviewed by Mrs. George and Ruth Gibson. The new officers elected for the year were: president, Mrs. George; vice president, Mrs. Edna Farree; secretary, Ruth Gibson; treasurer, Martha Hogue. The group will meet at the home of Mrs. George for their April meeting.

Dr. Robert Blair was a recent visitor in Philadelphia. While there, he preached in the First Church of the Covenanters on March 25. He also visited his niece and nephew in Camden, N. J., and on March 27 he attended the Foreign Mission Board meeting in New York City.

Mrs. Marie Shover, Chicago, Ill., and Charles H. Shover, Padock Lake, Wis., are visiting at the homes of the former's daughters, Mrs. Evelyn Grodecur and Mrs. Mary Allen.

Little Linda McElwain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry McElwain, who has been ill at her home, is much improved.

Women's Missionary society of Oak Grove church will meet with Mrs. Etta Young on Thursday, April 5, Mrs. Anna Gallagher leader.

Mrs. Donald Allen was a recent visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Walker, Gardner Stop.

Rev. Melville Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Harry McElwain and Miss Ann McElwain attended the Sunday evening services in the college chapel at Beaver Falls, where Rev. Argos Zodiates was guest speaker.

SURPRISE PARTY

Members of the Clinton Methodist church school delightfully surprised James Snyder, superintendent of the Sunday school, Friday evening with a party held in the I. O. O. F. hall in honor of his birthday.

Mr. Snyder received a lovely gift from the members of the Sunday school and Mrs. Vernon Shearer, in behalf of the church women, presented the honor guest with a lovely cake. A delicious luncheon was served to 60 guests. Rev. Wigton, pastor of the church, gave the invocation.

Group singing and a social time were the diversions of the evening. Robert and Gary Hackett played instrumental selections.

WAMPUM NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Yahn are residing in Grove City following their marriage March 9 in the Methodist church. The couple were united in marriage by Rev. J. B. Palmer, pastor of the church. The bride, the former Tazel Grinnen, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Grinnen of Main street.

Mrs. Carrie Griner of New Castle spent Sunday with Mrs. Lenora Stapp.

C. F. Morrow is spending the week in Winston-Salem, N. C.

Mrs. George Herbert and Miss Mildred Blythe were New Castle visitors Saturday.

C. B. Morrow was an Ellwood City visitor Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Stiritz of New Castle spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Yoho.

Mrs. Alfred Miles and son Ricky and Mrs. James Allen and daughter Paula were New Castle visitors Monday.

Skeleton Of Famed British Explorer Reported Discovered

RIO DE JANEIRO, April 4.—(INS)—The Brazilian news agency Meridional reports that the skeleton of Col. Percy Harrison Fawcett, British explorer lost in 1926 while searching for ancient civilizations in the Amazonian jungles, has been found.

Fawcett's disappearance has been an unsolved mystery for 25 years. On several occasions he has been reported seen alive, serving as a chieftain of an Indian jungle tribe in the forests of Matto Grosso state.

Several expeditions have sought unsuccessfully for traces of Fawcett. The agency quoted the Central Brazilian Foundation, a government organization, as saying:

"The mortal remains of Col. Percy H. Fawcett were found at the confluence of the Culene and Tanuro Rivers in the state of Matto Grosso in the area known as Rehion Xavantina and the River of the Deaths."

The report added that the skeleton was found by Galapagos Indians whose tribe was reported to have killed Fawcett some years ago. According to the agency, Indians living in the vicinity still have articles that were among Fawcett's possessions and which they are now using in religious rituals.

State V.F.W. To Seek To Arrange For Use Of Beds At Deshon

HARRISBURG, April 4.—(INS)—The state Veterans of Foreign Wars today announced its intention to arrange for the use of 335 beds recently closed by the Veterans Administration at the Butler VA hospital.

The institution's capacity for treatment of tubercular veterans has been cut from 835 to 500 beds. State commander Louis Feldmann announced appointment of Dr. Daniel Bohn of Altoona and Dr. E. C. Boyer of Johnstown to investigate the hospital's suitability for care and treatment of additional patients.

He said the findings will be turned over to Vice Adm. Joel T. Boone, VA medical director. He added:

"There are hundreds of tubercular veterans in Pennsylvania who should be hospitalized. The commonwealth has a waiting list of approximately 400 citizens seeking admission to state-operated hospitals at Cresson, Hamburg and Mont Alto.

"Pennsylvania's veteran population is enormous. We pay huge federal taxes and are entitled to the utmost consideration when hospital facilities are being apportioned."

HAVE you ever wondered how it would feel to go the limit on power and comfort and quality in an automobile?

Or how it would feel to be lord and master of a car that can take its place with the finest in the "fine-car field"?

Then, sir, this is a call to action.

The first action is yours—the simple action of getting in touch with a Buick dealer and planting yourself behind the wheel of a ROADMASTER.

Then let this great-powered and dazzling performer take over.

There's action in every one of the 152 horsepower in its Fireball engine—more action than most proud owners of this eager beauty will ever use.

There's counter-action in its gentle and sure-gripping brakes, the finest that Buick has ever engineered.

But there's also luxury—the luxury of double-depth Foamtex cushions and custom upholstery—and of ample roadweight magnificently poised on coil springs which individually cushion every wheel.

There's a spacious feeling of room, above and around you—room that is unsurpassed anywhere in the fine-car field.

And to make every mile effortless and relaxed, there's the very exclusive advantage of Dynaflo Drive—not as an "extra," but as a standard ROADMASTER feature.

So why not drop in and satisfy yourself, as our guest, that here indeed is a fine car that goes the limit—in everything but price!

Check for yourself what others ask—and what others offer—and you'll discover ROADMASTER prices a call to action that a wise man can't ignore.

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice.

Highway Zoning Law Is Placed Before Legislature

HARRISBURG, April 4.—(INS)—A highway zoning law was before the house today, supported by the Pennsylvania Roadside Council.

The measure, introduced by Rep. Thomas H. W. Jones (R) Norristown, would establish zoning rules for enforcement by the state highway department. Offenders would be subject to $25 fines for each day violations were allowed to exist.

The proposal would affect all political subdivisions which have not enacted zoning ordinances prior to its adoption.

No roadside signs would be permitted except those limited to 125 square inches or those advertising rentals which could not exceed 15 square feet.

Signs advertising businesses or professions would be limited to 125 square inches but three would be allowed on an area.

Main buildings would have to be built at least 75 feet from highways while accessory structures would have to be located at least 50 feet from a road.

Hardship cases, under the provisions of the bill, could be eased by invocation of a 20 per cent variance clause.

Draft Boards Will Have Test Blanks For College Men

HARRISBURG, April 4.—(INS)—State Selective Service headquarters today reported the application blanks for the E.T.S. tests to be given college students in May and June will be available at local draft boards within 10 days.

State Director H. M. Gross said the test scores, or scholastic standings in colleges and universities, will be used by local boards in determining eligibility of registrants for occupational deferments as students.

The exact date for distribution will be announced later, Gross added.

Cost Of Collecting State Income Tax Estimate $3,570,000

HARRISBURG, April 4.—(INS)—The anticipated cost of collecting the proposed one-half of one per cent flat income tax in Pennsylvania was estimated today at as much as $3,570,000 a biennium, House Majority Leader Charles C. Smith told members that between 1500 and 2000 employees would be needed to administer the collection program which has been forecast at 119 million dollars for the two-year period. Smith said the actual cost of collection was estimated at between two and three per cent of the tax total.

Licavoli Surrenders To Answer Charges Of Crime Committee

CLEVELAND, April 4.—(INS)—James Licavoli, Toledo and Cleveland ex-convict, surrendered to Federal authorities Tuesday to answer contempt charges placed against him because of his failure to reply to questions before the Kefauver Crime Committee.

Licavoli posted a Surety Company bond of $5,000 and was released. He told the marshal's office in Cleveland that he had been vacationing when the Federal Grand Jury returned the indictment against him March 27. Licavoli, brother of the ex-leader of Detroit's infamous purple gang, was one of three named by the grand jury. The other two, Joseph DiCarlo of Youngstown, and Joseph Aiuppa of Chicago, are out on $15,000 bond each pending trial.

The trio faces charges of refusing to answer 31 "pertinent" questions when the Senate Crime Committee conducted hearings in Cleveland in mid-January.

Cancer Crusade In State Under Way

HARRISBURG, April 4.—(INS)—The 1951 cancer crusade was under way in Pennsylvania today with the endorsement of Gov. John S. Fine.

The governor kicked off the drive officially by appointing screen stars Jeannette MacDonald and Gene Raymond as "cousaders" while they tour Pennsylvania with a road show.

Fine said the cancer society, in addition to collecting funds to pay for experiments with the disease, will distribute booklets listing the seven warning signals of cancer to every home in the state.

Three Are Jailed In Connection With Abortion Clinic

NEW YORK, April 4.—(INS)—Three doctors were jailed early today in connection with a $500,000-a-year "floating abortion clinic" whose alleged director and three women aides were arrested last night.

The purported "brains" of the organization and one of the women were seized in a Brooklyn apartment where raiders said an abortion was being performed on a collapsible operating table.

District Attorney Frank S.

Hogan identified the man as Daniel Paolucci, 40, of New Rochelle and quoted him as saying he had studied medicine in Italy and interned in New York hospitals but was not licensed to practice.

His woman aide was identified as Mrs. Frances Dirista, 30.

A doctor accompanying the raiders gave emergency aid to the woman found on the operating table and she was sent home.

HERE and THERE IN SPORTS LAND

IF EVERY HUNTER and fisherman in Pennsylvania would come out fighting for the farmers with the spirit shown by a sportsman at a recent meeting of the Northwest Division, Pennsylvania Federation of Sportsmen, they might get more for their efforts, writes Seth L. Myers, secretary of the Northwest Division of the Federation of Sportsmen.

"Never before, have I seen one lone sportsman stand on the floor of a convention and plead in behalf of our farmer friends as did George Bolinger of New Castle. He is Lawrence county delegate to the federation."

He had presented his county's resolution proposing a plan for farm ponds which would grant the owners certain special privilege. There were delegates present who were hesitant about backing the plan lest some sort of loophole be set up which could be used by other selfish interests.

The resolution was read again and again to show how possible loopholes were blocked and to overcome objections by some of the delegates. Here it is, in full form:

WHEREAS: under the present conservation program, it is recommended that landowners build farm ponds for better fire protection; to maintain water levels in adjacent land; flood control and fishing for food and recreation. Whereas farm ponds are constructed on private property at the individual's expense, and are stocked with fish purchased by the individual. Whereas: the State Fish Commission has jurisdiction over inland waters, including farm ponds, thus making said ponds subject to all present fishing regulations. Whereas: conservation agencies recommend that fish ponds be fished heavily to maintain balance of fish and that proper harvest be taken from ponds. Therefore, Be It Resolved: That the State issue a special farm pond license at a nominal fee, said license to exempt the holder from general seasons and creel limits also permit the use of seine for control purposes. (Private ponds and lakes built for commercial purposes shall be excluded.)

To every question, Bolinger had a good answer. He pointed out to the delegates how similar programs are in effect in other States. He appealed to the assemblage to use fair judgment in deciding the question.

He asked what the sportsmen are doing for their farmer friends. He asked why the farmers should not enjoy the privilege of harvesting fish from ponds on their own property the same as other crops such as corn, wheat, chickens, hogs and beef.

He stood facing the crowd with eyes afire and sweat streaming down his face and called for a vote. The answer was "Aye" from all except one county which withheld its vote. Whether the farm pond plan becomes law or not, we need more George Bologers.

HERMAN STEINBRINK, who witnessed Bob Baker score a TKO over Levi Bryant before a Duquesne gardens, Pittsburgh, crowd Monday night, reports that, in his opinion, Baker would have been easy for Elkins Brothers to defeat. He says that Baker was tired as early as the second round, and was "slow". . . . Mickie Solomon, referee, Mike Fazzone, boxing and wrestling judge, and Anthony D'Andrea, local representative of the Boxing and Wrestling commission, were summoned recently for a conference with State Boxing Commissioner Joe Holahan at Pittsburgh. . . . Bill to name legislators to the State Game commission was voted down at Harrisburg.

Ike Williams Signs To Defend Title Against Carter

Bout Scheduled For May 11th

Will Meet Pruden
In Chicago April 11

PHILADELPHIA, April 4.—(INS)—Lightweight champion Ike Williams has agreed to defend his 135-pound crown at Madison Square Garden on May 11 against Jimmy Carter of New York.

At the same time, the Trenton, N. J., better announced that if he retained his diadem in the Carter clash, he will make a second title defense in Los Angeles on June 19 against Art Aragon.

In August, Williams promised, he will make a third title defense against either featherweight champion Sandy Saddler or lightweight Percy Bassett of Philadelphia.

Plans Being Readied
Williams' manager, Frank (Blinky) Palermo said the International Boxing Club in New York will announce plans tomorrow for the May 11 Carter-Williams title bout.

The action by Williams to defend his crown was obviously an effort to head off the threatened stripping of his title by the National Boxing Association.

The NBA's championship rating committee has recommended to oust Williams and declare the title vacant.

Williams has not defended his title since he defeated Freddy Dawson in Philadelphia December 5, 1949. The NBA recently warned the fighter to sign for a defense before March 31, NBA president Arch Hindman said.

"Williams has had plenty of time and enough warnings. He apparently has just ignored us," Hindman said in the event the title is declared vacant an elimination tournament will be held to pick a successor.

The lightweight champ is scheduled to arrive in Chicago tomorrow to begin training for an over-the-weight bout with Fritz Pruden April 11.

Hindman said in the event the title is declared vacant an elimination tournament will be held to pick a successor.

East Brook Baseball Meeting Thursday

East Brook baseball team of the North County League will meet Thursday evening at the Hickory township fire house at 8 o'clock, it is announced by Marvin Kuth. All players of last year's team or any other players wishing to try for positions are asked to be present at the meeting.

Costley To Address Sportsmen April 12

Maurice Nielsen, general chairman of the Lawrence County Sportsman's Association banquet, which will be held April 12 evening in the Cathedral today, stated that Richard J. Costley, supervisor of the Allegheny National Forest will be the principal speaker at the banquet.

Originally Mr. Ross Leffler, president of the State Game Commission, was to have spoken, but because of civil defense and other important affairs has notified the association he cannot be present April 12.

Officials Meet Coaches Tonight

All-Stars Battle In Preliminary Tilt

Lawrence county high school Coaches and Officials will meet in the third and final game of their 1951 basketball series tonight at the Bessemer high school floor. A very fine preliminary attraction, scheduled for 7 o'clock, has been arranged with the county high school All-Stars meeting an under-graduate team from New Castle high school.

Scheduled to see action on the Coaches team are Fran Webster, Bob Eagleson, John Milonovich, Soc's Roussos, Al Russo, Bill Cicone, Jack Schantz, and Eddie Nahon—a team that would have made any coach proud (ten years ago).

For the Officials will be Alex Roebuck, Raggs Gennock, Pop Adams, Dick Borowicz, Marvin Kuth, Frank Reed, and Joe Wyszocki. Officiating the game will be Art Alexander and Roy Nolte.

Series Even
The Officials was the opener of the series at East Brook and the Coaches evened the series at New Wilmington last week.

The preliminary game promises to be as good as the feature attraction with all of the county's finest material on one team for the first time against a team from New Castle. Every school in the county section is represented on the All-Star team.

Among those slated to see action for the All-Star team are Pete Barber and Dick Pitzer of Union, Phil DeArment and Jim Gagliano of Bessemer, Caesar Craine of Wampum, Walt McGinnis of New Wilmington, Eddie Badger of Shenango, Clyde Cummings of East Brook, Joe Douth and Bob McKinley of Mt. Jackson and several others.

Don Eagle Weds Ohio State Girl

On Honeymoon To Indian Reservation

COLUMBUS, O., April 4.—(INS)—Don Eagle, Indian wrestling champion is heading for his Canadian reservation with his Columbus bride.

The 23-year-old son of Mohawk Chief Joseph Eagle yesterday confirmed rumors of the marriage to 19-year-old Beth Hamilton, a journalism student at Ohio State University.

Married March 22
Eagle said they were married March 22 at his Island Pond, Vt., lodge. He said the ceremony was simple and everyone but the justice of the peace wore spurs and boots. The Vermont state's attorney, a long-time friend, was best man.

The 220-pound Indian wrestler said that after the wedding trip to Caughnawaga, Quebec, he and his bride will return to the Vermont lodge. There, as Midwestern Wrestling Association champ, he will begin training for an April 24th Cleveland bout.

The league is scheduled to start play on May 16.

President Joe Howley will direct the meeting in a discussion of rules and regulations.

Plan Mercantile Softball Meeting

Mercantile softball league managers will meet at the YMCA Friday night at eight o'clock, and representatives from the following teams are asked to attend: New Castle Store, Universal, News Company, Penn Power, Bell Telephone, B. & O., Johnson, Bronze and the Business College.

The league is scheduled to start play on May 16.

President Joe Howley will direct the meeting in a discussion of rules and regulations.

Illinois Opposes Change In Pact

Johnston Signs Indian Contract

New Castle Club Gets Fast Outfielder

The New Castle Indians assured themselves of a fast outfield star today when Rudy Johnston, 6 foot, 186 pound Negro player returned a signed contract to President Al Scarazzo.

Johnston whose home is in Cleveland, O., was in a Canadian league last year and hit a tremendous .347. He can be used either in center or left field.

Johnston is anxious for baseball season to start and informed the local management that he is already working out at his home in Cleveland to get in shape.

Strong Outfield
The Indians are anxious to have Walt Kowalski return a signed contract. Kowalski was a .344 hitter last year with Johnston. He is a left fielder, and a fine fly chaser. He hit 12 homers last year.

Don Lavigne who was used in center by Johnston last year has returned a signed contract, which assures the Indians another potential 300 hitter, the youngster having hit .320 last year with 20 homers to his credit.

Kowalski, Johnston and Lavigne would give the New Castle Mid-Atlantic entry one of the strongest outfields in the league, certainly from a hitting standpoint.

The Indians are anxious to have Walt Kowalski return a signed contract. Kowalski was a .344 hitter last year with Johnston. He is a left fielder, and a fine fly chaser. He hit 12 homers last year.

Oakland Sportsmen To Meet Tonight

The Oakland Sportsmen club will have an important meeting tonight at 8 o'clock at the club rooms at Edenburg, it was announced by President Frank Zajac.

At a recent meeting of the club prizes were awarded to the following members—Johnny Knight, Walter Boron, Frank Kuchouhi, Stanley Carr and J. Feiger.

Begin Intra-Mural Basketball At Senior High School

Intra-mural basketball for both boys and girls began this week in the senior high school with three games being played off each evening.

Boys and girls teams play their games on alternate nights in the elimination series for a session room championship at the high school.

A 50 cents entrance fee is charged each home room to cover the cost of the awards given later to the winners.

The sophomore, junior, and senior class winner is determined for both boys and girls and then playoff games eventually decide the winning boys and girls teams in the school.

The session room whose team wins, keeps the trophy for the year, and the individuals on those teams are given gold and silver basketballs.

Miss Naples and Miss Clobuchar will supervise the girls games, and Mr. Criswell the boys games. The student council is sponsoring the intra-mural schedule.

Leo Durocher says he needs only three things to assure his Giants of a National League pennant this year: a National League pennant, a trustworthy relief pitcher, a strong reserve outfielder and a good break from Uncle Sam's draft boards.

Major League Clubs Start Drifting Northward Today

(By International News Service) Major league teams abandoned their grapefruit league training sites today and began their homeward-bound barnstorming tours which will make them ready for action in the season opens two weeks hence.

For the Brooklyn Dodgers, the season might just as well have gotten under way already, the way Jim Konstanty and Dick Sisler of the Phillies defeated them last night. It was a throwback to last season.

The Philadelphia fireman, and old Dodger nemesis, preserved a 5-3 lead that Sisler had given the team in the top of the eleventh inning with a home run. This is the same Mr. Sisler who won the Phils the pennant in an extra-inning last-day game last year against the same Brooks.

Indians Win
Mike Garcia went all the way for the Cleveland Indians as they downed the New York Yankees, 6-3. Luke Easter led a Cleveland attack on Vic Raschi with a double, triple and single.

The St. Louis Cardinals downed the Detroit Tigers, 8-6, and the Washington Senators edged the Cincinnati Reds, 16-15, in a slugfest. Cincy's Bob Usher was the big gun with two homers, one with the bases loaded.

The New York Giants overcame a seven-run deficit to top the Boston Braves, 10-8; the Pittsburgh Pirates blanked the Chicago Cubs.

1-0; the Philadelphia Athletics defeated Atlanta of the Southern Association, 8-6; Birmingham edged the Chicago White Sox, 6-5, and the St. Louis Browns beat San Antonio of the Texas league, 4-1.

Dickson Hurls Three-Hitter

Pirates Defeat Chicago Cubs, 1-0

NEW ORLEANS, April 4.—(INS)—Pittsburgh opened a five-game series in New Orleans today and all the Pirates were happy about little Murry Dickson's great three-hit pitching job which led to a 1-0 victory over the Chicago Cubs yesterday.

Dickson went the full nine innings before 3,506 fans in Houston, Tex., and he had to be near perfect. The Cubs' lone run in the fifth was not earned.

Lomar (Turk) Lown held Pittsburgh to one hit in seven innings and Dutch Leonard, who finished up, permitted them the other.

Today the Cubs meet the Chicago White Sox. Tomorrow the Cubs play a single game and then comes three games with the league champion Philadelphia Phillies.

Hornets Need One More Win

Defeat Hershey
Tuesday, 2 To 1

(By International News Service)

The Pittsburgh Hornets need one more victory over the Hershey Bears tomorrow night to land them in the final round of the American Hockey league playoffs against the favored Cleveland Barons.

Right winger Andy Barbe on Pittsburgh's first line was the star of the Hornets' second straight triumph over Hershey last night in their best of five semi-final series. His two goals paced the Hornets to the 2-1 victory.

The next three games will now be held on the Hornets' home ice where they must be given the advantage over Hershey. If Pittsburgh wins again tomorrow night, the Hornets will take on the Cleveland Barons in Cleveland beginning Saturday night.

Sandy Saddler

Wins By TKO

LOS ANGELES, April 4.—(INS)—The jury was still out today on the question of whether Freddie Herman, Los Angeles lightweight, is a grand actor or a badly-wounded gladiator.

World featherweight champion

Sandy Saddler scored a fifth round technical knockout over Herman last night before a crowd of 5,800 baffled fans in Los Angeles' Olympic auditorium.

Titan Tennis Card Announced

The Westminster College tennis team will open its 1951 schedule April 19 against Slippery Rock here.

Westminster will play 10 opponents this season including two new district foes, Carnegie Tech and Duquesne. One district opponent, Geneva, was dropped from this year's schedule.

The schedule: April 19—Slippery Rock, here. April 27—West Virginia, here. May 2—Carnegie Tech, here. May 5—West Virginia, away. May 7—Pitt, away. May 9—Slippery Rock, away. May 12—W. & J., away. May 14—Allegheny, here. May 16—Duquesne, away. May 19—W. & J., here.

Syracuse-Knicks In Deciding Game

NEW YORK, April 4.—(INS)—The New York Knicks and the Syracuse Nationals will clash at New York tonight in the fifth and deciding game of the semi-final play-off series in the Eastern Division of the National Basketball Association.
